Dear student,

This is your personal grammar book for years 1 to 4. You can always use it to look up how the English language works.

Therefore, ALL the language in this book MUST be correct.

Always write your answers in pencil  so you can easily correct them. Then ask a teacher to check your answers.

Das ist dein persönliches Grammatikbuch für das 1. bis 4. Jahr. Du kannst immer nachschlagen, wenn du Fragen bezüglich der englischen Grammatik hast.

Aus diesem Grund muss hier alles GANZ RICHTIG sein. Schreibe deine Antworten immer mit Bleistift, sodass du sie leicht ausbessern kannst. Bitte deine Lehrperson deine Sätze zu korrigieren.

For the Teacher

In this grammar book the learners take on the role of active language detectives. They will explore the examples and develop basic rules themselves (or with a bit of guidance from the teacher) and thus develop their language awareness. This step is always followed by a personalized task, where the learners are asked to write true and meaningful sentences about their own lives. In this step the learners will make strong meaning - form connections that are even more important than the declarative knowledge of the language rules. Supporting the learners to create meaningful answers at this stage is crucial for developing their grammatical competence.

After these phases of awareness raising, finding their own rules and writing personal examples, the learners will be ready to practice and use the new grammar in productive tasks. Examples of such tasks can be found in our Me-book.

For more information on this approach, read the chapter “Teaching Communicative Grammar” in English Language Teaching in Austria: From Theory to the Classroom and Beyond, J. Jauster and U. Fürstenberg, Eds. 2023. Free download from: <https://doi.org/10.25364/978-3-903374-05-8>

a or an

Challenge 1

Look at the two boxes below. What do you notice? When do we use a and when do we use an in front of a word? SAY the words and LISTEN carefully.

an apple	an orange	a boy	a dog
an English book	an ugly duck	a girl	a garden
an ice-cream	an interesting book	a chair	a school

My rule

Wenn ich am Beginn eines Wortes*a,e,i,o,u*.....höre, verwende ich an.

Now it's your turn

Write the words in the correct boxes. (Schreibe die Wörter in das richtige Kästchen.)
tiger, banana, book, exercise book, pencil, eraser, door, old man, internet-café, English teacher, blackboard, window, American film, elephant tiger banana book

pencil

a door blackboard window

exercise book eraser
old man internet-café

an

English teacher elephant
American film

Challenge 2 for pros:

a or an? Scan the QR code and listen VERY carefully. What sounds do you hear at the beginning of these words? In which of the two circles do they go: a or an?

__ a __ university, __ a __ uniform, __ a __ unicorn, __ a __ unit in my coursebook __ an __ mp3-player, __ an __ XL-pullover, __ an __ uncle, __ an __ umbrella , __ an __ ugly bird

Do we need a or an here? Write in the words, then listen to the words again.

My rule

Ich sage a unicorn, a unicycle, weil ich am Beginn des Wortes ein J höre.

Ich sage an mp3 player, an XL-pullover, weil ich am Beginn des Wortes ein E(em) oder I(ix) höre:

BIG LETTERS – small letters

In English we use big letters for

- I (I am happy.)
- names (Paula, Thomas),
- countries (England, Austria, Croatia)
- cities (Vienna, Graz, London, Paris)
- languages (German, Croatian, English)
- and at the beginning of sentences.

In the English lessons we speak English. Elisabeth and Selina are talking about London and England but I am reading a book about America.

Now it's your turn:

Write 3-5 sentences and mark the BIG LETTERS. Ask your teacher to check.

Examples:

name + beginning of sentence: My best friend is called Seba.

I + beginning of sentence: My mother and I like shopping.

country and I: I am from Austria.

city and I: I live in Linz.

languages and I: I speak German, Arabic and English.

To be: am – is – are

Look at these examples:

My name is I am a student at PraxisNMS. I am ten years old. I am not in class 4b.	How old are you? You are a very nice person. You are my best friend. 	Anton is not in my class. He is at NMS Kepler. He is funny.
		Sally is a student in England. She is very nice. She is not very tall.
 We are also happy. We are not sad.	Mary and Peter are good friends. They are very happy. They are not from Austria.

Now it's your turn:

Write 10 sentences with am | am not | is | is not | are | are not

Write true sentences about yourself, your friends, your classmates and teachers and your family members or pets. Write a first draft on a piece of paper.

Schreibe immer wahre, sinnvolle Sätze. Schreibe einige der korrigierten Sätze hier auf:

Examples:

I am not eleven years old. I am ten years old.

Ahmed is not in my class, but Elia is in my class.

Sarah and Rina are not best friends. Melissa are best friends.

I speak – She speaks – I live – He lives

Routines: What we do regularly

Maria usually gets up at half past six. Then she takes a shower and gets dressed. At seven o'clock she has breakfast with her family. She eats bread, butter and jam and she drinks a cup of hot chocolate. Then she goes to school by bus. She arrives at school at half past seven. She goes to her locker to change her shoes and to hang up her coat or jacket. School starts at quarter to eight....

Here we are talking about

..... (daily) routines

We use the present simple (get up, take, have, go...).

Now it's your turn:

My daily routines

Comparing

1. Read the descriptions of these exotic animals and highlight all the comparisons (Vergleiche). Then match them with the pictures. Draw lines.

Horsotigopigchick

The horsotigopigchick has the body of a tiger, the head of a horse, the tail of a pig and the feet of a chicken. Its head is bigger than a tiger's head and a lot heavier. The horsotigopigchick's legs are much thinner than a tiger's legs and it is slower than a tiger. It has a thin pink tail and it is less intelligent than the Tigohorsophin but is the friendliest of these animals and makes a perfect pet.

Crocosharkopeacock

The crocosharkopeacock is a very strange animal. It has a crocodile's head, the body of a shark and the tail and feathers of a peacock. Its legs are as short as a crocodile's and it cannot run very fast, but the crocosharkopeacock can fly faster than any other bird. It is the fastest animal in the world. It has very sharp teeth and it is one of the most dangerous animals in the world. It is more dangerous than a crocodile or a shark.

Tigohorsophin

The tigohorsophin is a lovely animal. It has the head and neck of a horse, the body of a fat tiger and the tail and fin of a dolphin. It has the smallest, shortest legs of all the exotic animals. Normally it doesn't walk but it can swim. The tigohorsophin is the heaviest of the exotic animals and it is even slower than the horsotigopigchick but it is the most intelligent of all the exotic animals. It is more intelligent than a dog.

2. Are these sentences true or false? Tick the correct ones and correct the false ones.

Horsotigopigchicks are as fast as tigers. not as fast as/slower than

Tigohorsophins are the heaviest and slowest animals in this group. ✓

Tigohorsophins are the most intelligent of the exotic animals. ✓

The Tigohorsophins crocosharkopeacock has shorter legs than the other animals.

The horsotigopigchick is more dangerous than the other animals.

The crocosharkopeacock is less dangerous than the horsotigopigchick.

Challenge:

Find the rule.

How do we compare adjectives?

How would you explain this to your mom?

Challenge:

Write the three forms to show that you can compare things.

thin 	thinner 	the thinnest
kind	kinder	kindest
cold	colder	coldest
intelligent	more intelligent	most intelligent
beautiful	more beautiful	most beautiful
interesting	more interesting	most interesting

Explain it!

Now it's your turn:

Choose two animals and compare them. Use a piece of paper for your first draft.

Write at least 5 sentences. Ask your teacher to check.

Then copy the corrected sentences into this box.

Individual answers

e.g. Dogs are more intelligent than cats.

Cats are nicer than dogs.

Dogs are more dangerous than cats.

Cats are smaller than dogs.

Dogs are bigger than cats.

My rule: in English or German

Kurze Adjektive werden mit „-er“ und „the ...-est“ gesteigert.

Slow – slower – the slowest

Längere Adjektive werden mit „more“ und „the most“ gesteigert.

Intelligent – more intelligent – most intelligent.

Step 3: What would you do if ? Write at least 2 sentences per topic.

Well, if I won a thousand Euros in the lottery, I would book a flight to Great Britain or to Ireland and spend a wonderful week there. Of course, I would take my family with me.

If I won a million Euros, I would buy a house or a castle in Scotland where I would spend the summer. I would have a butler, of course.

If I had a superpower and could become invisible, I would go to Buckingham Palace and watch the Royal family.

I would also go to a film set of Dr Who. If I was invisible, I would go to a spa in the evening when it is closed and be there all on my own.

If I could travel in time, I would visit many interesting times. I would go to Scotland in the 17th century and visit the Scottish clans. Then I would go to the 19th century and meet Sissi. Then I would go to the 20th century and take a picture with Albert Einstein. And if I could travel in time, I would also go to the future and meet my great-grandchildren.

one or ones --- this or these

Challenge 1

Look at the two dialogues below and highlight “one” and “ones”. What do you notice?

When do we use one and when do we use ones and this and these?

Shop assistant: Good morning. How can I help you?

Customer: I'm looking for a new sweater.

S: How about the blue one here?

C: I don't like blue... Do you have any grey ones?

S: Yes, over there. Do you like this one?

C: Yes, this one is beautiful.

S: What size do you wear?

C: Small.

Shop assistant: Good afternoon. What can I do for you?

Customer: I'd like a pair of boots.

S: What size do you wear?

C: I usually wear size 7. I'd like some green ones.

S: Sorry, we don't have any green ones. But these blue ones are really trendy, or these brown ones. The brown ones are very popular this winter!

C: Can I try them on?

S: Of course.

C: I really like them. How much are they?

S: 110 pounds.

C: That's too expensive. I can't afford that. What about the black ones?

S: They are on sale. They only cost 50 pounds right now.

C: Great, I'll take the black ones!

My rule

We use (THIS) ONE for*for 1 thing*

We use (THESE) ONES for*for 2 or more things*

some or any

Challenge 1

More and more young people are becoming vegetarians. They have decided not to eat any meat or fish. Some people do not eat any animal products, not even milk, eggs or honey. They are called vegans. Let's see what kind of food Lea, Tim and John have at home.

Read the texts and mark SOME and ANY in two different colors.

I'm a vegan, but my parents eat meat and other animal products. Therefore, we have all kinds of foods in our kitchen. There are always some eggs in our fridge and we usually have some milk and yogurt at home. My mom makes sure there is always some soy milk or oat milk for me. We don't usually have any tofu, but once in a while my mom buys some tofu and prepares a delicious Chinese stir-fry for the whole family. We all like that a lot.

In my family we are all vegetarian. We don't eat any meat or fish. So, we never have any meat or sausages or fish in our fridge. We always have some yogurt, because we eat yogurt with fruit for breakfast every day. We always have some milk in our fridge, and we love cheese. There is always some cheese in our fridge. We eat lots of vegetables and salad, so there are usually some zucchini, some tomatoes and some carrots in our fridge.

In my family we like to eat a mixed diet. We eat all kinds of foods, including meat, fish and milk. Unfortunately, I am allergic to nuts. Therefore, we never have any nuts at home. My mom makes sure not to buy any breakfast cereals that contain any nuts. When I buy sweets or snacks in the school cafeteria, I always check the list of ingredients to see if they contain any nuts.

Challenge 2

Choose one of the three students. What kind of food does their family eat? What do they usually keep in their fridge? Draw the things and label the picture.

Lea	some eggs, some milk, some yogurt, some soy milk or oat milk, (some meat, some tofu possible)
Tim	some yogurt, some milk some cheese some zucchini, some tomatoes and some carrots
John	some meat, some fish and some milk.

Challenge 3

Lea, Tim and John are going on a class trip. When they sign up for the trip they are asked about their food preferences and allergies. What do these kids NOT eat?

Lea does not eat any ...meat, fish or animal products.

Tim doesn't eat any meat or fish.

John doesn't eat any nuts.

Challenge 4

Look at these questions. What is the difference? Why does the speaker use some or any?

Ms. Pölzleitner, do you know some good English books that I could read? (Hint: Ms Pölzleitner is the English teacher.)	Mr. Grasser, do you know any good English books that I could read? (Hint: Mr. Grasser is the math teacher.)
We expect the answer to be YES because she is the English teacher.	It's a real question. We don't know the answer.
Ms. Bergmann, I know that your family likes chicken. Do you have some good chicken recipes ?	Ms. Pölzleitner, I know you are vegetarian, but do you know any good chicken recipes ?
We expect the answer to be YES because she likes chicken.	It's a real question. We don't know the answer.
Lea, I see that you always put oat milk in cereal. Could I try some , please?	Is there any oat milk in the teachers' fridge at school?
We expect the answer to be YES	It's a real question. We don't know the answer.
Ms Wagner, can I have some colored paper for my collage, please? (Hint: Ms Wagner is the art teacher).	Tim, do you happen to have any non-permanent markers that I could use?
We expect the answer to be YES because she is the arts teacher.	It's a real question. We don't know the answer.

My Rule

We use some ... if we want to say that we have these things
In a question we use some if we expect the answer to be YES.

Think YES!

We use any ... if we don't have any.

In a question we use any if we don't know if this person has these things of if we expect the answer to be No.

Think No
or maybe!

Now it's your turn!

What do you never/sometimes/usually/always have in your fridge?

Draw the things that you have in your fridge! Then write 7 sentences. Use some and any.

Adjectives and adverbs: Colorful and detailed descriptions

Challenge

Ask your teacher for a set of vocabulary cards for this activity. Then sort the cards into two groups.

Ask your teacher to check your cards, then write the sentences in the correct boxes below.

Group A: What people and things are like:

Nora is a hardworking student. Clyde is a bit cheeky but the teachers like him.

Ben is intelligent but he is always nervous before tests.

I'm sorry that I was bad-tempered yesterday.

When I was a kid I was really shy. Everybody wants to be popular.

I'm not very tidy. Please tidy up your desk. It is very untidy.

My brother is extremely selfish, he never shares anything.

Some students are a bit disorganized and forget to hand in their texts.

Some kids hand in sloppy work. A few kids are very noisy. Many students are nervous during tests.

Some kids are impatient. The reading diaries are really beautiful.

The videos are excellent. The kids can write very creative stories.

Ms Pö is very generous. She bought ice-cream for everybody.

He is a good singer. He is quite fast.

My Rule:

When we describe what something or someone is like we use ...adjectives..

Group B: How we DO things.

If you ask politely, Ms Walch will allow it. She shyly entered the room. Most students of 3F do their vocab work regularly. Most students do their work carefully. Most kids work quietly in class.

Most students work quickly and efficiently. Some students work slowly but very carefully.

The class can sing beautifully. The children looked around nervously.

The students of 3F work well in projects.

The students can think creatively and they can use the new language creatively.

He looked at his watch impatiently.

I'm really proud because I worked hard and got an A.

She sings well. She learns fast.

My Rule:

When we describe how we do things, we use adverbs (-ly)

Describing people and things: What are they like?

Read the following text about Willy the Vampire and underline all the adjectives.

ADJECTIVES describe WHAT THINGS and PEOPLE ARE LIKE. The first ones have been done for you:

Willy the Vampire

When I went to elementary school, I had a classmate who was a bit strange. He was very small and thin, and his skin was very pale. He had short, blond hair and very long fingers and toes. Willy always sat in the last row. He seemed very tired and shy.

Willy was a good student. His math grades were always excellent, and he was a talented storyteller. He always got As for his stories in German. Willy liked to draw and paint, and we all liked his pictures. Our teacher often hung his pictures up in the hallways because they were so special.

Willy lived far from the school at the edge of our town. He lived in a large, very old house with his family. They were all as pale as Willy and they were all very shy.

There were lots of wild rumors about Willy and his family. Many people said that they had seen them walking the streets in the middle of the night. Others said that they had heard strange, howling noises in their house at full moon.

We never dared to ask Willy about these rumors, but even if he was a vampire, he was a nice and friendly classmate and he did not do any harm to anybody.

Now it's your turn

Choose five interesting adjectives and write your own sentences with them. Make sure all your sentences are TRUE and tell us TRUE things about yourself, your family and friends.

Write the adjectives into column 1, then write your sentences into column 2

Adjectives	My TRUE sentences
e.g. friendly	individual answers e.g. Our dog is very friendly
e.g. large	individual answers e.g. My father's house is large.
e.g. excellent	individual answers e.g. My English teacher said that my last story was excellent.
e.g. talented	individual answers e.g. I am a talented musician.
e.g., pale	individual answers e.g. Last week I was pale because I had the flu.

Describing how people do things

Now read the text about Willy again. Some parts have been changed or added.

Use a new color and highlight all the words and phrases that show us HOW people DO things.

Example: How did Willy speak? He spoke very quietly.

Willy the Vampire

When I went to elementary school, I had a classmate who was a bit strange. He was very small and thin, and his skin was very pale. He had short, light-blond hair and very long fingers and toes. Willy always sat in the last row. He seemed very tired and shy.

When Willy spoke, he did it very quietly. He always looked around shyly and nervously and watched very carefully what his classmates were doing. In the breaks Willy sat quietly in a corner and read a book, while the other students were running around wildly and shouting loudly at each other.

Willy was a good student. He worked very carefully in all subjects and did very well on all tests. In German he loved to write stories and spent a lot of time planning them very carefully. Willy could draw and paint really well.

Willy lived far from the school at the edge of our town. He lived in a large, very old house with his family. They were all as pale as Willy and they were all very shy.

There were lots of wild rumors about Willy and his family. Many people said that they had seen them walking in the streets in the middle of the night. Others said that they had heard the family howl loudly at the full moon, others had heard them whisper silently in the graveyard.

We never dared to ask Willy about these rumors, but even if he was a vampire, he was a nice and friendly classmate and he did not do any harm to anybody.

Now it's your turn

Choose five interesting adverbs (how they DO things) and write your own sentences. Make sure all your sentences are TRUE and tell us how you, your family and friends do things.

Write the adverbs into column 1, then write your sentences into column 2

Adverbs	My TRUE sentences

Telling stories in the past

Describing the setting and atmosphere and talking about events that happened in a story.

Challenge:

1- Read the following mini-story. Where does the writer describe the setting and atmosphere?

Where does the writer talk about events that happened that night. Use a red and a green color pencil and color the parts that describe events red and the setting and atmosphere passages green.

It was a cold night in October. The moon was shining but dark clouds were moving across the sky. A storm was howling and the branches of the trees were moving in the wind. Lots of leaves were flying through the air.

I was walking along a dark road. The leaves were rustling under my feet. An owl was hooting and a dog was barking nearby.

Suddenly...

a cat rushed out of a side-street and stopped in front of me. It looked at me with burning green eyes and growled.

I screamed in shock and hid behind the nearest car.

My heart was pounding and I was really scared. I heard the cat moving around silently. It was still growling – not like a little housecat, but more like a tiger. The cat's green eyes were shining in the dark.

The cat crossed the street and came towards me.

With each step it grew bigger and bigger and the growling got louder and louder.

That's when I remembered the magic coin in my pocket. I took it out, held it up in the air towards the cat and hoped...

Yes, ... it worked. The cat saw the shining coin, froze – and then turned around and ran away.

My rule:

When we describe the atmosphere and the background in a story, we use the*past progressive / ing-form*...

When we talk about events and things that happened in the story, we use the*past simple form*

Now it's your turn:

Write a similar mini story. Write about 5 sentences that describe the setting and atmosphere and about 5 sentences showing what happens in the story.

Ask your teacher to check your sentences. Then use your text to make a flip-flap story and record your story on record your story as a video and share it with your classmates.

It was a individual stories - this part in past progressive

Suddenly... individual stories - this part in past simple

School rules in the USA

Mona has just spent a year as an exchange student in the USA. We asked her to tell us about her experiences at an American middle school.

Hi everyone,

As you all know, I spent a year in Kansas City. I lived with a host family and went to school there. School was really different in the USA. First of all, we did not have our own classroom, but we had to go to a different room for each subject. So I had to check my schedules all the time in order to be in the right place at the right time. This was quite stressful for me, and it took me some time to get used to this system. One rule that I found very strange was the toilet rule. You had to get a toilet pass from the teacher. Only one person at a time was allowed to go to the toilet and if a teacher saw you in the hallway, you had to show the toilet pass.

Another thing that was new to me was the school uniforms. Not all American schools have them, but I went to a private school and there we had to wear dark blue pants or skirts, light blue shirts or blouses and dark blue sweaters or jackets. We were not allowed to wear tank tops or miniskirts. On Fridays we did not have to wear our uniforms, but we were allowed to wear jeans. Sweatshirts, hoodies and sweatpants were only allowed in the gym class.

School was from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m., so all students had to stay for lunch. The food in the school cafeteria was really delicious, but the cafeteria staff was very strict about noise and cleanliness. We were only allowed to talk quietly, and we had to return our trays and leave the tables clean after eating.

All in all, these rules were okay, but I prefer the rules at our school.

What were the rules in your primary school?

We had to... individual answers e.g. wear slippers

We did not have to... individual answers e.g. stand up when a teacher came in.

We were allowed to... individual answers e.g. work in the hallway

We were not allowed to... individual answers e.g. use our phones in class.

Giving essential details: Defining Relative Clauses: who and that

Let's be very specific about the things and people that we are talking about.

When we are referring to things, we use THAT

The book that I like best is...
individual answer.....

The scariest film that I have ever watched was individual answer

The best food that I have ever eaten is ... individual answer

When we are referring to people, we can use WHO or THAT. THAT is less formal.

The students who do their vocab work regularly are really good at English.

The teachers who teach languages must spend a lot of time correcting our mistakes.

The team that won the volleyball game practiced a lot.

The children who do not have a computer at home can borrow a tablet from school.

The actor/actress that I like best is.....
individual answer

The person that I admire most is individual answer

Your Turn:

Write true and meaningful sentences. Use WHO and THAT.

individual answers e.g. I like the teachers who don't give us homework.

individual answers e.g. The classmates who always talk in class are annoying.

individual answers e.g. The best kebab that I have ever eaten was from Kapadokia.

individual answers e.g. I still remember the time that Frederic fell asleep in class.

Conditional III: How would things have been different?

Regrets: Have you ever wanted to turn back time?

Have you ever done anything that you regret?

Let's look at some examples:

I did not study enough for the math test.

If I had studied more for the last maths test, I would not have failed it.

I left my phone on my desk in school.

If I had not left my phone on my desk, it would not have been stolen.

I played computer games all night.

If I had not played computer games all night, I could have concentrated better during the English test and I would have done a lot better.

My rule:

Look at the words in bold letters. If you talk about how things in the past could have been different (but you cannot change them any more) you use:

If I had + _____, I would + _____ + _____

Your turn:

Think of some things that you regret. How would things have turned out if you had acted differently?

Write 5 sentences. Write meaningful and true sentences, not just anything.

individual answers e.g. If I had gone to the cinema I would have met Ryan.

individual answers e.g. If I had not shouted at my mum I would have been allowed to go to the cinema.

individual answers e.g. If I had not bought so many sweets and snacks I would have had enough money to buy a cool new t-shirt.

What if...

If they had given up, you would never have heard of them

Who are these famous people who all failed miserably, but did not give up?

Match the life stories with the names.

Steve Jobs, Steven Spielberg, Henry Ford, Thomas Edison, The Beatles, Walt Disney, Bill Gates, Michael Jordan, J K Rowling, Albert Einstein, Charly Chaplin

Then watch the video and check your answers. Be careful. Not all examples in the video have been used.

If he had given up after being fired from his basketball team, he would not have become the most famous basketball player of all times.	Michael Jordan
If they had stopped playing music with their band after several record labels told them that guitar music was not cool, they would not have become the most famous band of all times.	The Beatles
If he had given up drawing cartoons because nobody wanted to hire him as an artist, he would not have created the most famous cartoon figure in the world.	Walt Disney
If he had given up his dream of building computers after dropping out of university, he would not have become one of the richest men on Earth.	Bill Gates
If she had stopped writing because several publishers rejected (=did not want) her first book, she would not have become one of the most famous authors of children's books and the second-richest female entertainer.	J K Rowling
If he had listened to his teachers who told him that he "would never amount to much", he would not have won the Nobel prize in physics.	Albert Einstein
If he had given up after being fired from three computer companies, he would not have become one of the richest men and the owner of one of the most famous industrial designers in the world.	Steve Jobs
If he had given up his dream after going bankrupt five times, he would not have become one of the most successful car producers of the USA.	Henry Ford
If he had given up when his teachers told him that he was "too stupid to learn anything", he would not have invented the light bulb.	Thomas Edison
If he had listened to the Hollywood studio chiefs, who said that his acts were too stupid and nonsensical, he would not have become one of the most famous English comic actors of all times.	Charly Chaplin
If he had given up after being rejected from film-school, he would not have become one of the most famous film directors of our times.	Steve Spielberg

When we talk about how long we have had something, or how long we have been doing something we use the present perfect tense.

Do you remember?

We have used the present perfect tense before. Do you remember what we have used it for? Check page 42.

We also use the present perfect tense to talk about general experiences

Which tense form do we use to talk about specific details and events?

The simple past tense

For and Since

Work with a partner. Use all the phrases from the box to write true sentences about yourself and the people around.

since 20__ ... for three years... since September.... for more than xxx years... since Monday... for three days... for many years... since Christmas... for almost an hour... since 7.40

Example: I have been a student at this school since 20__.

Individual answers

e.g.

I have known xx since the beginning of this schoolyear.

I have not eaten for three hours.

I have had this schoolbag since primary school.

I have tried to come up with sentences for this exercise for 10 minutes.

Find a rule: Look at the sentences again. When do we use for, when do we use since?

My rule:

We use "for" when we talk about periods of time, (hours, days, months, years...)

How would you draw "for 3 years"?

How would you show "for" with your hands? Mime it.

We use since when we talk about points in time, we think of when it started.

How would you draw "since my birthday".

How would you show "since" with your hands? Mime it.

How long have you...

Work with a partner.

Step 1: Answer the questions below truthfully and guess your partner's answers.

Step 2: Then talk to your partner to find out whether your guesses are correct.

Example:

Student A: "I think you have played the violin for three years, is that correct?"

Student B: "Yes, that's right." OR "No, I have only played it for one year." OR "No, I do not play the violin, but I play the piano. I have played the piano for about 5 years."

Now it's your turn:

Question "How long have you..."	You	Your partner (guess!)
known your best friend?	individual answers
lived in your house?
owned your pet?
practiced your favorite sport?
been a student at this school?
played the guitar/piano/drums/...or any other instrument have you had your favourite lucky charm?
have you had your computer?
known your neighbour?

Use your spiral notebook to write down your partner's answers in full sentences. Always write two sentences. Look at the examples.

My best friend is → I have known him/her for ... years.

Max lives in a blue house. → He has lived in this house for 12 years.

Maria has a dog. → She has had her dog for 2 years.

Tim plays soccer at GAK. → He has played in this club for 3 years.

My neighbors are called ... → They have lived next to us for Active or passive: What's your choice?

Work with a partner and look at these examples. What do you notice?

Both texts are about Potato chips. In text 1 many passive constructions are used. In text 2 the writer has only used active voice. What's the reason?

What is the main focus of text 1 and what does text 2 focus on?

Text 1: The Story of Potato Chips

Potato chips are thin sliced potatoes, fried quickly in oil and then salted.

The potato chip was invented in 1853 by a chef named George Crum in New York. When a customer returned his French fried potatoes to the kitchen because they were too thick George Crum got so angry that he sarcastically cut them paper thin and sent the plate back out. The customer and others around him, loved the thin potatoes.

The chips were usually prepared in someone's kitchen and then delivered immediately to stores and restaurants, or sold on the street. They had to be eaten immediately.

Two innovations paved the way for mass production. In 1925, the automatic potato-peeling machine was invented. The chips were hand-packed into the bags, which were then ironed shut. In these air-tight bags the chips could be kept fresh and stored for a longer time.

Today, potato chips are the most popular snack in the United States.

Text 2: George Crum: The Inventor of Potato Chips

George Crum was a chef in a little restaurant in New York. He was a very creative man and liked to try out new recipes. One day, a customer returned his French fried potatoes to the kitchen because they were too thick. George Crum got so angry that he sarcastically cut them paper thin and sent the plate back out. The customer and others around him, loved the thin potatoes.

From that day on, George Crum fried paper-thin potatoes every day in his restaurant. His potato chips soon became famous in the area and other restaurants and stores also wanted to sell them.

Many other cooks copied Crum's idea and prepared potato chips. They made them fresh every day and delivered them to local stores and restaurants.

Now we can buy potato chips in air-tight sealed bags. They stay fresh and crisp for a long time.

Today, potato chips are popular all over the world. We all love to eat them.

My rule:

We can use the active or passive voice to underline important parts of a sentence.

In text 1 the passive is used because the CHIPS are important. (how they were invented)

In text 2 the writer has used active voice because he tells us what George Crum did. He thinks of the person who did it.

How do we form the passive?

Fake news: Reporting unbelievable things that someone said

Flying penguins? Watch the BBC video.

This is what the explorer said

This is what Robert told his friends

"This recently discovered colony of penguins is unlike any other."

"These little fellas can do something no other penguins can."

"They fly thousands of miles to the rainforests of South America where they spend the winter basking in the tropical sun."

"They don't need to huddle together every winter for protection against the bitter cold."

I saw a cool video on YouTube the other day. It was about penguins that can fly!

It was a BBC documentary but it can't be true! The reporter said that they had recently discovered a colony of penguins that was unlike any other. He claimed that they could fly and actually flew south every winter and spent the cold season in warmer regions.

He showed the video and you could see the penguins flying! He said that they didn't need to huddle together to keep warm because they could fly to the South.

Now it's your turn:

STEP1: Look at the words in bold. What do you notice?

The words are in the present tense on the left side and in the past tense on the right side.

Then read what Maxi and his brother said about it.

Maxi is announcing some cool news 	Robert is reporting fake news

“Wow, you won’t believe what they have discovered in Madagascar. I saw a BBC video where an explorer showed some flying penguins. I didn’t know they can do that. I thought penguins were too heavy to fly, but the video really showed flying penguins. How amazing. The explorer explained that they are unlike any other penguins in the world. They don’t spend the winter in the ice, and they don’t need to huddle together to protect themselves against the cold. They fly south to warmer countries, just like other birds. He said that they can fly thousands of miles and spend the winter in the tropical sun. Isn’t this amazing? I would really like to see these flying penguins myself.”	“Have you seen the BBC video about flying penguins? It went viral on all the social media. It showed an explorer in Madagascar and he said that he had discovered a colony of penguins that was unlike any other in the world. He said that these penguins didn’t spend the winter in the ice – huddling together against the cold, but that they could fly. He explained that these special penguins could fly to warmer regions and spend the winter there, just like other birds do. In the video you could see the penguins running and then starting to lift off. Then the video showed lots of black birds flying in the sky. At first it seemed very convincing – but then I noticed that it was published on April 1st. So, the whole thing is obviously a hoax. Of course, penguins do not fly.

What do you notice?

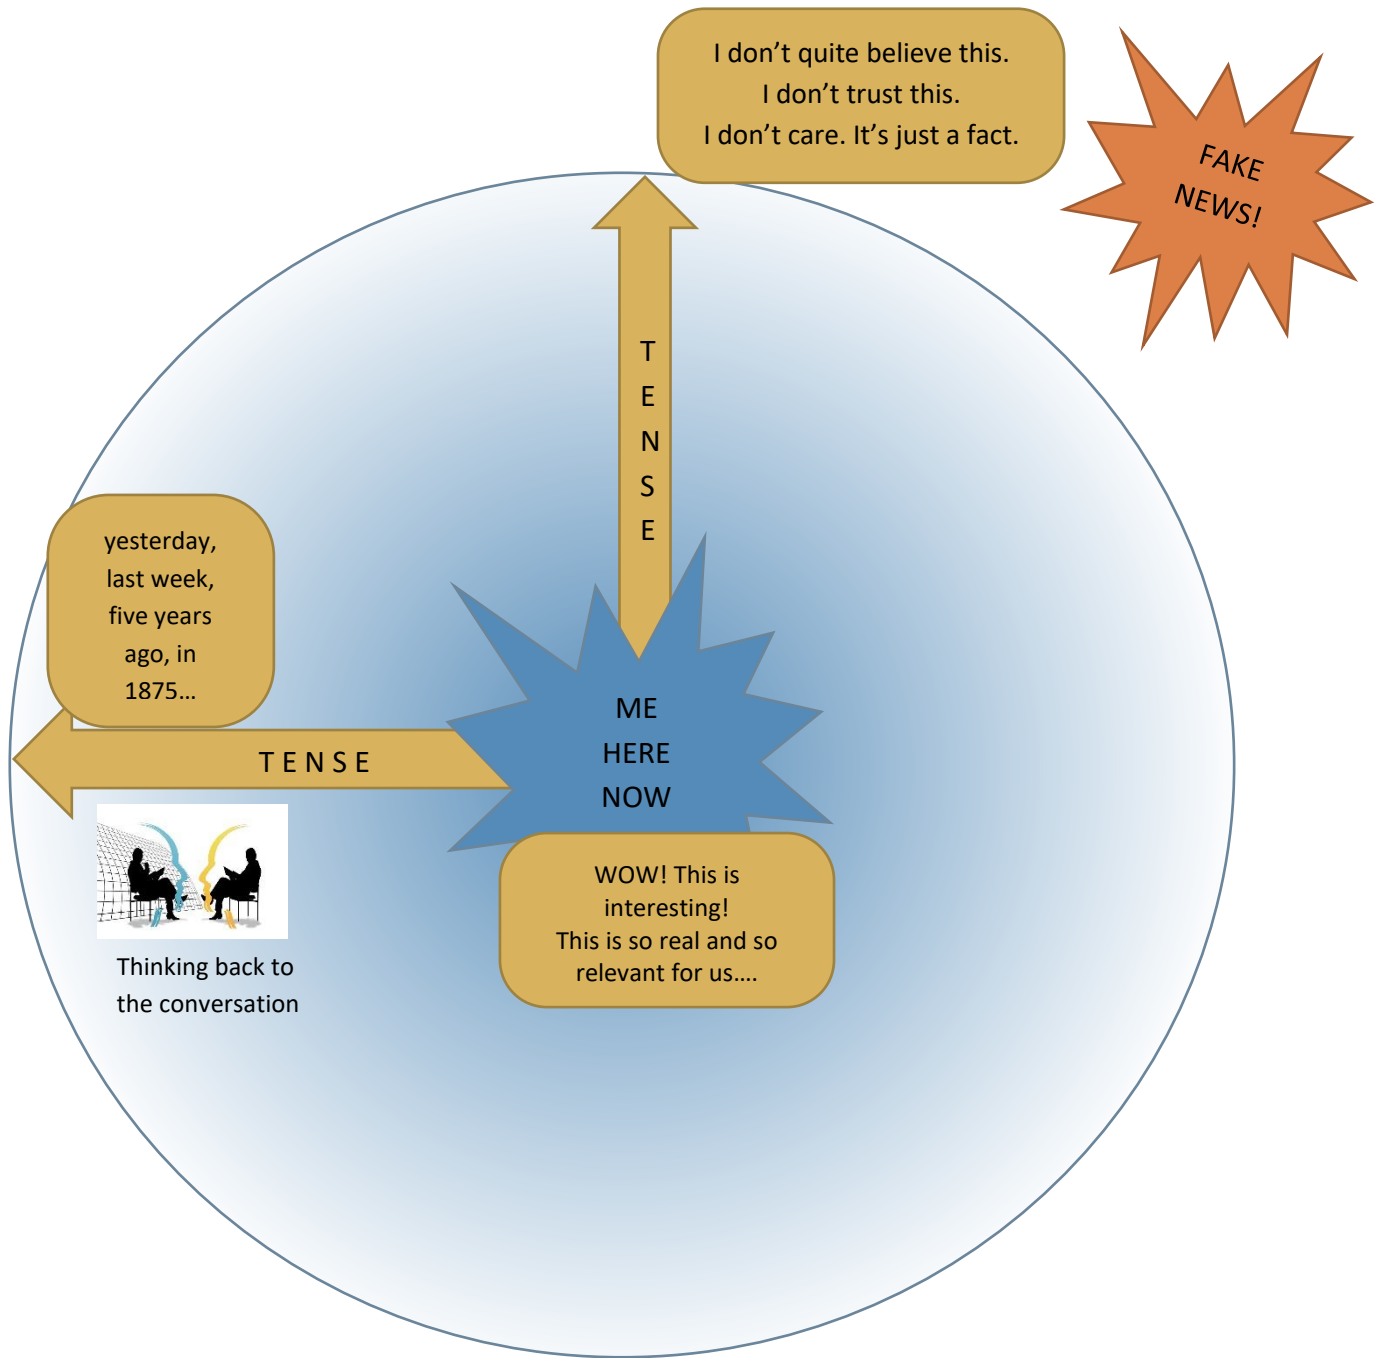

Both Maxi and his brother Robert are talking about the same video. Why are they using different tenses here?

Maxi uses the present tense because he is telling us interesting news.

Robert uses the past because he doesn’t believe that penguins can fly. He reports fake news and distances himself from the false information.

The Reporting Circle

Announcing interesting news	Reporting fake information
Maxi is announcing cool news. He thinks this is great and wants to tell us about these cool animals. In everyday situations we often use the present tense to talk about interesting news or facts that we have heard of or read. More examples of reporting fake news

Last week I met an old friend of mine and we got into a really weird conversation. Mark really thinks that aliens exist and are all around us. He claimed that they were abducting humans and were doing strange experiments on them. He was really scared and said that he didn't leave the house at night anymore.

He then added that you also had to be careful outside, even during the day. He asked if I knew about chemtrails. He claimed that politicians wanted to control people, so they added chemicals to the fuel of airplanes and if you wanted to be safe, you had to wear a helmet made of metal or stay inside.

I tried to reassure him, but he didn't want to hear my arguments. He told me to read the warnings on Facebook and Telegram and he promised to send me some links to shocking videos. Mark seemed really scared – I don't know where he got all the fake news from. Maybe he spends too much time on the internet!

What were Mark's exact words?

He said: "I am sure that aliens exist and are all around us. They are abducting humans and are doing strange experiments on them. I am really scared. I don't leave the house at night anymore.

But you also have to be careful when you go outside during the day. Do you know about chemtrails?

The politicians want to control people, so they add chemicals to the fuel of airplanes. If you want to be safe, you have to wear a helmet made of metal or stay inside.

I'll send you some links so you can watch the shocking information yourself. You won't believe it – it's really scary what they are trying to do to us. "

Now it's your turn.

Here are a few examples of recent fake-news headlines. Report in 1 sentence what the articles or videos said.

Research Team taught Gorilla to Knit

The article said that a research team (had) taught a gorilla to knit

Boy saw UFO over Vienna

The boy claimed that he (had seen/ saw) a UFO over Vienna.
but I am sure it was just an airplane.

Facebook: Global warming does not exist

I saw a comment on Facebook. The writer claimed that global warming didn't exist but we know that it is a fact.

Now add 3 more examples of fake news that you have come across.

I read on the internet that individual answers (using the past tense or past perfect tense)

Someone told me that _____

My classmate claimed that _____

Let's recap: Reporting fake news

We report fake news in the past tense (or the past perfect tense). We use the tense to show that we are distancing ourselves from information that we doubt (anzweifeln)

The phrase he/she claimed that – also shows that we do not trust the information that we are reporting.

"Aliens are abducting humans."

He claimed that Aliens were abducting humans.

"Gorillas can learn to knit."

He said that gorillas could learn to knit.

"I have discovered flying penguins."

The explorer explained that he had discovered flying penguins.

But, we can use the present tense to announce important, interesting and trustworthy information that we have heard or read.

Our teachers promised that we will soon get a new basketball hoop for our schoolyard. (Here you trust your teachers)

Mom told us that she is going to have another baby. I am so excited.

Reporting neutral information that someone said in the past –

We are thinking back to the conversation.

Yesterday I met the new Math teacher during the big break.

Hello, are you the new Math teacher?

Yes, it's my first day here at your school.

Where did you teach before?

The last 3 years I taught at a school in Vienna, and before that I taught at a school in Salzburg.

Why did you come to Graz?

I decided to move to Graz because my wife got a good job here and my parents live here as well.

Do you also teach any other subjects?

Yes, I also teach Geography, but I prefer Math.

We had a little chat. He seems quite nice.

He told me that it was his first day here at our school.

He said that he (had) taught in Vienna before and before that he had taught at a school in Salzburg.

When I asked him why he came to Graz he told me that his wife got a good job here and that his parents lived here as well.

He is also a Geography teacher, but he told me that he liked teaching Math more. That's strange. Math is much more difficult than Geography.

Reporting: Thinking back to the conversation

We report in the past tense (or the past perfect tense) to show that we are thinking about the past and reporting what other people said in that situation.

- neutral facts that someone else said in the past
- a situation that is past and no longer true

In last week's interview, the actress said that she was working on a new film.

Last night the minister of education said in the news that all students would get free laptop computers.

I knew she would not show up for the date. She is too shy.

He promised he would come to the party and bring some food, but he didn't even show up.

Your Turn

The witness said that he was looking (or had been looking) out of his window when the accident happened. He told the police that he saw (or had seen) the red car racing down the street.

Socrates said he could not teach anybody anything. He could only make them think.

So much to do! This is what Ms Bergmann told us last week

Don't forget to hand in your vocab books tomorrow and show your test to your parents. Complete the text at home and bring it to class tomorrow.

If everybody finishes their project by Friday, I will show you a film in the next lesson.

Can you bring some cookies and popcorn, so that we have a real cinema experience.

This is what you tell your friend

Last Monday, our teacher was quite strict. She told us to hand in our vocab books on Monday and to show our tests to our parents. She also told us to complete the text and to bring it to class the next day.

Then she promised to show us a film.

January 2nd, 2021

Dear Diary,

Today I got into a really tricky situation again. A few minutes ago, I was hanging upside down in a mine, copying and memorizing a text. This was one of the scariest things I have ever done. It was totally dark, and I was scared of falling down even deeper into the hole below me. 😞

I was hanging in there, head down because I was copying a text that was carved into the stone wall. I knew it was an important message for the next clue in South Africa.

When I had finished copying the text, Nellie pulled me up and Amy and Nelly wanted to know what I had found out down there and why I had stayed down there so long. But there was a problem: we were not alone. Court, the strange boy that we had met earlier was also there. I did not trust him at all, he might be following us in order to get to the clue first. Therefore, I said that there was nothing special down there, just bats and rats.

When we were finally alone, I told Amy and Nelly what I had found. I am soooo excited – I am sure this will lead us to the next clue. I hope Court won't follow us tomorrow. We have to get away from here as fast as possible...

Wish me luck!
