

If things had happened differently ...

Try to guess who of the powerful voices we talked about in class could have said the following quotes:

"If I had not been attacked I probably would not have ever given a speech at the UN."

"If I had given my seat to that white person, I would not have landed in prison."

"If the world's governments had done more to protect the environment, I would not have gone on the streets to protest."

My rule:

Look at the words in bold letters. If you talk about how things in the past could have been different (but you cannot change them anymore) you use:

If I had + _____, I would + _____ + _____

Your turn:

Answer the following questions:

- What would you have done if you had been in Malala's situation when she was shot by the Taliban?
- What would you have done if you had been in Rosa Park's situation when she was asked to give her seat to a white person in the bus while she was driving home?
