

It was a and night in February.

Outside the moon was shining and the wind _____

_____ loudly.

An owl was hooting and a big, scary animal _____

_____ up and down in front of the house.

It was growling angrily.

Upstairs Tom's grandparents were getting ready for bed. Grandpa _____

_____ his teeth

and grandma was sitting in her favourite chair. She _____ _____ a book.

Tom's dog _____

_____ on the sofa.

It was dreaming of chasing rabbits.

Tom's sister _____

_____ on her sofa. She

_____ to

music and chatting with her friend on the computer.

Tom's parents _____

_____ a science fiction series on TV. A ghost was trying to destroy the earth. It was very frightening.

Tom's grandpa came downstairs. He still had his toothbrush in his hand. He looked at the vampire and shook his head slowly. He said loudly: "You should brush your teeth, young man. You can't come to my house with your mouth all full of blood. Come with me to the bathroom – you can use my toothbrush." The vampire looked frightened and started to scream. He turned around and ran away. Tom's family never saw the vampire again. The End

Tom's dog _____ up and started to bark. The vampire looked at the dog angrily. "Sit.", he said quietly. The dog stopped barking and sat down. It looked at the vampire with big eyes.

Tom's sister came into the living room. When she _____ the vampire she _____ her cellphone and phoned her best friend. She told her friend how good looking the vampire was. Then she took a photo and sent it to her.

Tom's mother screamed loudly. She jumped up and _____ under the stairs. Tom's father didn't notice the vampire – he was watching TV! He said: "Don't worry dear, there's going to be a happy ending!"

SUDDENLY
the door opened and a vampire came in!

