- Work with a partner.
- Color the picture of the classroom. Do NOT show your picture to your partner.
- Then find out the differences.

Ask your partner about his/her classroom:

	Your partner's classroom
What color is your blackboard?
What color are your walls?
What color are your chairs?
What color is your floor?
What color are the shelves?
What color are the chairs?
What color is the door?
What color are the desks?
What color are the curtains?

Our classroom is nice and big. We have very large windows with colorful curtains. The curtains are red, yellow, blue and green.

Our walls are white and we have a big green blackboard.

Our desks are gray and our chairs are brown.

On the teacher's desk there is a computer and we have a projector so we can see the pictures on the front wall.

We have a yellow floor.

On the back wall we have two big gray cupboards and we have brown shelves for our books and folders.

I really like our classroom.

My classroom is big and colorful. It has very small windows. Our curtains are white. The desks are brown and the chairs are gray. There are two boards, they are black. We have pink walls and a blue floor. Our washbasin is in the back, it is white. We have lots of bookshelves for our folders and shoes. On the teacher's desk we have a CD player so we can listen to music.

In the back of our classroom we have three large, blue cupboards. We also have a nice, big plant and some posters on the pinboard.
