- Pick a card.
- Read the text carefully. If you do not understand a word
 - guess its meaning (rate was es bedeuten könnte)
 - use your book or your vocabulary list
 - ask your teacher
- Put the card on the blackboard with a magnet.
- Now you are ready to “stretch your memory”. Merke dir soviel du kannst und gehe langsam zu deinem Platz und schreibe es auf ein Blatt. Gehe solange hin und her bis du den ganzen Text geschrieben hast. Vergleiche am Ende und verbessere deine Fehler. Schreibe alle Sätze in denen du Fehler gemacht hast auf Vokabelkarten.
- Tip: The colors of the cards tell you which module you are practicing. Example: blue = module 3

My Room --- My Home --- My classroom

My room is nice and big. It has a window with blue curtains. My desk is under the window. The desk has three drawers. There is a red lamp on my desk. Next to my desk there is a bookshelf with lots of books.	I share my room with my brother. We have bunk beds. I sleep on top. In our room we have a wardrobe for our clothes. We have shelves for our books and toys. We also have two desks to do our homework. There is a colorful carpet on the floor.	My room is not very large. I have a bed, a wardrobe, a desk, a chair and a bookshelf. There is a large mirror above my bookshelf. It is very nice. My curtains are light-blue, and my carpet is dark blue. I really like my room.	Our kitchen is very big. We have a cooker with an oven, a fridge and a microwave. We have a large sink, but we do not have a dishwasher. There is a large table in the kitchen. We have our meals there.
Our bathroom is not very big. We have a shower with a white shower curtain, but we do not have a bathtub. We have a white washbasin and a little cupboard for towels. Our toilet is not in the bathroom. It is in a separate room.	Our living room is very nice. We have a big sofa and two armchairs. Between the sofa and the armchairs there is a coffee table. We often play games there. Opposite the sofa there is our TV. We all like watching TV together.	In our living room we have a large dining table with six chairs. We eat our meals there. Our living room has two windows and a glass door. It leads to the balcony. On the floor there is a colorful carpet. We often play games there.	Mrs. Pölzleitner's house is blue. On the ground floor there is the living-room, the kitchen and the music room. On the first floor there is the bedroom and a study. In the study there is a desk with a computer and a printer. There are lots of bookshelves on all the walls.
Mrs Bergman's house is yellow. It is very big. Mrs. Bergman's apartment is on the third floor, under the roof. It has a large living room with a big sofa, a round dining table and many bookshelves. There is an aquarium full of colorful fish. The kitchen is next to the living room.	Mrs Bergman's kitchen is not very big, but it is very nice. The cupboards are blue. There is a big fridge full of good things. There is a sink, a dishwasher, a cooker and a big oven. The kitchen is open and you can look out into the living room.	Mrs. Pölzleitner's kitchen is not very big. The cupboards are light gray. On the right side there is a cooker and an oven, a sink and a dishwasher. The fridge and the cupboards for the dishes are on the opposite wall. There are many big drawers for the pots and pans.	Our classroom is nice and big. We have new triangular  desks and blue swivel chairs. They are really cool. Our board is big and green. We have a computer with a projector. The windows of our classroom are very big and we have very nice, colorful curtains.
