Describing a room

© 1 pixabay: CC0

Sort the jumbled text pieces. If you need help, listen to the text.

This is the Millers' living room. It is not very

……

……

……

……

……

……

……

……

……

……

……

……

……

glass. There are no carpets, but the wooden floor is very nice.

This is the Millers' living room. It is not very

are striped blue and white and there are pot of white flowers on it. The Millers love reading books. Therefore, they have two big bookshelves big, but it is very cozy. When you come there is a colorful, modern painting. In front of the bookshelf, in the left corner of the

on the back wall. They are white and full of colorful books. Between the bookshelves there is a fireplace and above the fireplace big windows with long curtains. In the front of the room, there is a dining table with two leather chairs. The table is made of many soft cushions on them. Between the two sofas in, you see two big sofas, one opposite the other. The sofas room, there is a red reading lamp. On the left wall there are there is a dark brown, wooden coffee table with a glass. There are no carpets, but the wooden floor is very nice.