

What I eat every day

3 Vocabulary: English breakfast

a) Look at the words and the picture. Which five things can you find? Write the words next to the numbers.

- cornflakes
- bacon
- fried egg
- ~~sausages~~
- orange juice
- toast
- tomatoes
- baked beans
- milk
- hot chocolate
- butter
- jam

Info

This is a picture of a cooked English breakfast. It is a really big meal.

People often have things like sausages, bacon and eggs, baked beans on toast, bread and butter, tomatoes and mushrooms.

They drink a cup of tea or coffee and sometimes a glass of fruit juice.

b) Match the words with the definitions and write the numbers in the boxes.

- | | | |
|------------------|---|---|
| 1. cornflakes | 7 | Children love this sweet brown drink. |
| 2. orange juice | 5 | It is a round red fruit. You also find it in ketchup. |
| 3. butter | 6 | It is sweet and you put it on toast. |
| 4. milk | 4 | It is white and you add it to tea or coffee. |
| 5. tomato | 1 | They are small, crunchy and yellow. You eat them with milk. |
| 6. jam | 2 | This fruit drink is good for you. It is yellow. |
| 7. hot chocolate | 3 | You put it on bread or toast. |

4 What do you have for breakfast?

Look at Zoe. Is this your breakfast, too? Make a list of the things you have for breakfast.

examples: yoghurt,
 • fruit: apples, banana ...
 • bread with butter and jam
 • cereals with milk
 ↳ = crunchies, cornflakes ...
 muesli

5 Getting it right: a - an - some

Write the words in the correct boxes.

apple ✓ bread roll ✓ ham ✓ egg ✓ cheese ✓ chocolate ✓ cornflakes ✓ honey ✓ mushrooms ✓ ice cream ✓ orange ✓ glass of milk ✓ pear ✓ water ✓ piece of bread ✓ meat ✓ tomato ✓ jam ✓ muesli ✓

Grammar See → G 26

a - an - some

a pear	an apple	some milk
a sausage	an orange	some butter
some pears	some apples

a	an	some
a bread roll	apple	some ham
a glass of milk	an egg	some cheese
a pear	an orange	some chocolate
a piece of bread	an ice-cream	some cornflakes
a tomato		some honey
		some mushrooms
		some water
		some meat
		some jam
		some muesli

6 Inviting a friend

You invite a friend for a sleepover. You want to find out what he or she likes to have for breakfast. Choose words and phrases from dialogues 1 and 2. Then take turns.

Dialogue 1

- A: What do you normally have for breakfast?
 B: I normally have ... for breakfast.
 A: Is there something you don't like?
 B: No, not really. And what about you? ...

Dialogue 2

- A: What do you usually have for breakfast?
 B: For breakfast I usually have ...
 A: Is there something you don't want to have?
 B: Yes, I don't like ... And what do you like for breakfast? ...