Incident

of the dog W THE NIGHT-time

by: Mark Haddon

Autism is associated with a combination of genetic and environmental factors.

So please if you don't want your child to have Autism, stay away from valproic acid, alcohol, cocaine, etc... during pregnancy

As far as I know symptoms of Autism are as follows: Avoids eye contact

There are more but I don't know them saying. Uses facial expressions that don't match what they are saying.

Doesn't pick up on others expressions, tone of voice, and gestures.

Makes few gestures
Reacts unusually to sights, textures, and sounds.

Autism speaks is a wonderful charity for Autistic people. If you can, go donate some money! 🙏

Dear Lupele,
You just booked
is really awesome,
you have described so
many different aspects of the book - perfect!
My favorite pages are
• your character drawings
• the cover and about the page
• Aspergers King's and the diaries. Terrific! %

Hello Father,

I just wanted to send you a letter on how I was doing. And how Sandy is doing. I'm doing good, I've only gotten A's so far. I'm going to take my last science test on Friday. Sandy is doing great. She usually sleeps on my bed though.

- Chris Hopkins

Thank you for managing to go all the way through this book thing.

We have been through a lot, it has really been a journey. But not to the nest, ~~but~~

But seriously thanks a lot it has been fun!

Bye!

Autism

Autism is a developmental disorder characterized by troubles with social interaction and communication, and by restricted and repetitive behavior. Parents usually notice signs during the first two or three years of their child's life. These signs often develop gradually, though some children with autism reach their developmental milestones at a normal pace before worsening.

Now that you know what Autism is, I have to tell you something. Come closer... okay, so our main character suffers from a specific Autism. Aspergers. "Hooo. Not another page of information." No worries I won't bore you with that just know that our main character suffers from it.

The main character of our story is...eve the drum roll... Christopher Boone!

Ummm...okay...I guess. He's 15 years old male with photosynthesis. I'm just jokin' with ya, he just has really good memory.

He used to live with his dad but I'm quite sure he lives with his mom now.

He used to have a pet rat, Toby, but the poor thing died of old age. Now he has a dog called Sandy. The puppy is a Golden Retriever.

He's an only child.

And he lives in Swindon. I don't know where that is. I guess the fumes of this pen are getting to me.

His dad's name is Ed Boone. But I don't know his mom's name.

I find it kinda weird that we never got to know what a lot of the characters looked like. So this is how

I imagine they look like.

The Play

Yes you read that right! There's a whole play about this book in London I think. Though I haven't seen it for myself.... I can't I don't live in London and I don't wanna spend my money on that. From the reviews I saw people say it's really damn good, so if you live in London, are interested in the book and have the money, you can go ahead and buy yourself or your loved ones or yourself AUD your gang then go ~~spend~~ spend that money and have yourself a prime time.

"Okay, sure, but what happened?", well I would explain everything but I shouldn't so I'm gonna summarize it quickly.

It follows 15 year old Christopher Boone trying to find out who killed a dog called Wellington. Christopher has Asperger's Syndrome and loves lists, patterns and.... THE TRUTH! *dun dun duun* He hates yellow, brown and being touched. Can relate. Everything took a left turn when he found a letter addressed to him.

Andddd that's as far as I'm gonna tell you. Now you gotta find out for yourself. <sup>is</sup> Have fun!

He won Whitbread Award, the Dolly Gray Children's Literature Award (DGLL), Guardian's and a Commonwealth Writers Prize for his book! Amazing, right?

He was born in Northampton, England. He went to school in Uppingham School and Herton College, Oxford, where he studied English

In 1984, he completed an MSc (I don't know what that is) in English Literature at the University of Edinburgh! (Wow, cool!!)

Mark is known for a lot more of things

Reviews

Mark Haddon's portrayal of autism is brilliant and hilarious. A superbly realised and funny as well as a sad book. - GUARDIAN

'EXCEPTIONAL' by Sunday Telegraph

A Remarkable achievement but absolutely incredible reward. An impressive review. - THE OUT

I thought that the book was the amazing secret to the success of the film. - D. 19. 10. 13

My opinion

To be honest, I think the book was pretty damn good.

And that's coming from a girl who mainly likes horror and fantasy.

And on my part that's a damn shame because I could hypothetically speaking like books like this one. But I'm just too caught up in my love for creativity and I think it comes out when people write fantasy horror books.

Maths A Level formulae

$$\text{Total amount} = P \left( 1 + \frac{r}{100} \right)^n$$

Curved surface area of a cone =  $\pi r l$

Surface area of a sphere =  $4\pi r^2$

Volume of a sphere =  $\frac{4}{3}\pi r^3$

Area of triangle ABC =  $\frac{1}{2}ab \sin C$

Arc length =  $r\theta$ , where  $\theta$  is in radians

Sector area =  $\frac{1}{2}r^2\theta$ , where  $\theta$  is in radians

$$\frac{a}{\sin A} = \frac{b}{\sin B} = \frac{c}{\sin C}$$

$$a^2 = b^2 + c^2 - 2bc \cos A$$

$$\text{Mean} = \frac{\sum fx}{n}$$

$$\text{Standard deviation} = \sqrt{\frac{\sum fx^2}{n} - \left(\frac{\sum fx}{n}\right)^2}$$

I have no idea what this even means.  $\Downarrow$

Dear Diary,

Today made me feel sad.  $\textcircled{11}$

Because Mother said I can't do my Maths A level because we're in London.

I want to go back to Swindon to do my Maths A level.

My chest and head really hurt, like when Father grabbed my arm when he was angry and shouted at me.

I want to go back and do my Maths A level but Father lives in Swindon and I don't want to see Father because he killed Wellington so he could also possibly kill me. I'm writing this on a small paper I found in the spear room.

Also I saw ~~4~~

Yellow cars in a row
Black Day.

Dear Christopher,

Sorry that I haven't written to you, I was very busy. I'm so sorry that I haven't written YOU when I know I can only write you I just wanted to check up on you.

Also I'm doing great!

The Dead Dog on Randolph

Some weird things have happened in our little town but yesterday a report was sent to the police about a murder. But not just any murder, an animal murder. A murder on 41 Randolph street. The poor dog, Wellington, was impaled with a pitch fork. The owner of the dog was Mrs. Shears. The middle aged woman lived y herself with only her dog. The Animal Protection Services (APS) haven't found the culprit

yet. We hope the nasty murderer gets what he deserves. And before we end with this story, we have some comments about this from our dear fans. Amanda: I hope the culprit will be found soon! He killed a dog for hell's sake. Spencer: Maybe there's a reason why someone would kill a dog? I don't know. Marie: I hope he burns in HELL, the poor puppy. YYY
