November 10
I had a sitting job for Charlotte Johnson I love sitting for Charlotte she's one of my very favorite kids. And her mother, Dr. Johanssen, is a doctor at Stony Brook Media Center so I like talking to her - she always asks me how I'm doing and how I feel about my treatments Today was no different except for near the end of the afternoon

Sunday November 23

It is just one week since Liz Lewis and Michelle Patterson sent around their fliers. Usually our club gets about fourteen or fifteen jobs a week. Since last Monday we had seven. That's why I'm writing in our notebook. I supposed to be a diary of our baby-sitting club jobs, so each of us can write up our problems and experiences for the other club members to read. But the Baby-sitters Agency is the biggest problem we've ever had and I plan to keep track of it in our notebook. We better do something fast.

Monday, December 2

Today Kristy, Stacey + Mary Anne all arrived early for our baby-sitters club meeting. We were all really excited to find out how Janet and Leslies sitting jobs had gone on Saturday, when it was 5:30 we left expecting the doorbell to ring any second. But it didn't. Soon it was 5:50. Where were they, Krist was getting worried. Write this down in our notebook, somebody she said. Somethings wrong
