

Lösungen Language in Use E HT1 2010/11, 02. Mai 2011

Task 1: Hitching Rides

0	Q1	Q2	Q3	Q4	Q5	Q6	Q7	Q8	Q9	Q10
B	A	D	A	D	B	D	C	D	B	C

Task 2: Maria Montessori

0	Q11	Q12	Q13	Q14	Q15	Q16	Q17	Q18	Q19	Q20	Q21	Q22	Q23
E	J	C	L	N	O	B	F	M	H	A	P	K	I

Task 3: The dangers of social networking

The explosive growth of the social networking websites, such as	the	0
MySpace.com, Friendster and Facebook, could revolutionize	✓	00 job searching for younger generations. That is, if either the	either	Q24 questionable content on some of their personal pages doesn't	✓	Q25
entirely ruin any chance what they might have of getting a job offer.	what	Q26
The newest Internet craze has so wonderful potential, but right	so	Q27
now friendship sites contain dangers too many pitfalls and can	dangers	Q28 do more harm than is good when it comes to your future. Some	is	Q29 managers browse always social networking sites and peer into	always	Q30 their employees' lives outside work. As a result, workers have	✓	Q31 been fired for trading many insider company information	many	Q32
through blogs or such posting pictures of scandalous behavior.	such	Q33
Hiring managers can drop off candidates from consideration for	off	Q34
the same reasons. At the risk are recent college graduates who	the	Q35
post amount pictures of spring break or end-of-year parties	amount	Q36 showing excessive drinking or even so drug use. Yet, the	so	Q37 dangers of social misconduct are not limited to recent graduates	✓	Q38 looking for jobs. Current employees risk been losing their jobs as	been	Q39 well.

Task 4: Learning the Hard Way

0	education
Q40	unkindly
Q41	beaten
Q42	memorize / memorise
Q43	painful
Q44	eighties / Eighties
Q45	effective
Q46	being
Q47	children
Q48	taking
Q49	treatment
Q50	laziness
Q51	unmarried
Q52	failure