

Lösungen Language in Use E HT2 2010/11, 10. Mai 2011

Task 1: A Different Alarm Clock

0	Q1	Q2	Q3	Q4	Q5	Q6	Q7	Q8	Q9	Q10
B	D	D	B	A	C	B	A	C	A	B

Task 2: Tribute to Titus

0	Q11	Q12	Q13	Q14	Q15	Q16	Q17	Q18	Q19	Q20	Q21	Q22	Q23	Q24
G	N	D	A	P	H	L	I	E	Q	F	B	O	C	K

Task 3: Rosslyn Chapel

Rosslyn Chapel is a beautiful little 15th century church located	✓	0 in the village of Roslin, where not far from Edinburgh. Rosslyn	where	00
Chapel was not at all well-known church until 2003, when it	church	Q25 became a major tourist attraction almost overnight. The world	✓	Q26
got up to know about the chapel when it was used as the	up	Q27
location for the finally ending of the best-selling novel, The Da	finally	Q28
Vinci Code . Within a short time, visitors were driving making	driving	Q29
their way to Roslin from all over the world. The old car park	✓	Q30 used to have offered space for four or five cars and was rarely	offered	Q31 full. When Rosslyn Chapel became famous, a bigger car park	✓	Q32
had used to be made for the many buses and cars arriving	used	Q33
every day. The custodians of the chapel are more delighted with	more	Q34
the new interest in the chapel, even if it is only eventually due to	eventually	Q35
a popular thriller. The chapel costs a lot to look at after but the	at	Q36 money worries are over at last. For since years the roof has	since	Q37
been in need of repair; now, thanks to becoming the income	becoming	Q38
from the crowds of visitors, the chapel that is undergoing	that	Q39 restoration. For fans of The Da Vinci Code , it will soon be an	✓	Q40
even more fascinating sight seeing than before: Rosslyn Chapel,	seeing	Q41
one of Scotland's top tourist attractions.

Task 4: Walking in Ireland

0	becoming
Q42	Western / westernmost
Q43	walkers
Q44	exceptional
Q45	national
Q46	healthy
Q47	best
Q48	simply
Q49	idyllic
Q50	sights
Q51	fitness