Three little bears.

One with a light.
One with a stick.
One with a rope.

A spooky old tree.

Do they dare go into
that spooky old tree?

Yes.
They dare.

Three little bears ...

One with a light.

One with a stick.

One with a rope.

A twisty old stair.

Do they dare go up
that twisty old stair?

Yes.
They dare.

Three little bears.

One with a light.

One with a stick.

And one with the shivers.

A giant key.

A moving wall.

Will the three little bears
go through that wall?

Do they dare go into
that spooky old hall?

Yes.
They dare.

Three little bears.

One with a light.

And two with the shivers.

Great Sleeping Bear.

Do they dare go over
Great Sleeping Bear?

Do they dare?
Well ...

They came into the tree.

They climbed the stair.

They went through the wall ...

and into the hall.

So of course they went over
Great Sleeping Bear!

Three little bears ...

without a light,

without a stick,

without a rope.

And all with the shivers!

How will they ever get out of there?

Up a ladder ...

Through the floor ...

Down a slide ...

And out a door!

Three little bears
running fast.

Home again.
Safe at last.
