

Choose Your Own Adventure

STORY TITLE

The Goophered Labyrinth!

By

Leonie & Sophia
(The best authors!)

Instructions

For this project you will work with a partner and you will write your own story just like the Choose Your Own Adventure story you have just read in class. First decide who "You" are in the story. Choose a button from Mrs. Pö's collection and create an interesting identity. Write some keywords about your main character into this box:

Name: Sam
Age: 21
Setting/Place: Jungle 1924
Hobbies, Interests: Jungle/Forest explorer, technical things...
Family/Friends: mass murderer
Any other....
Attention! This book takes a lot of things!

Then, think of a situation that leads to two possible decisions. Each of those decisions will lead to two more decisions, and then each of those will lead to an ending. It's as simple as that.

Before you start, look at the Decision Tree on the last page of this booklet. Follow the pattern to organize your story. Your story will be 7 pages long, and will have 4 different endings.

Remember, your story must be in the 2nd person (you!) and in the present tense (just like the CYOA book that you have read). Pages may be longer or shorter as you need them to develop your story.

Write nicely and legibly but don't worry about the layout in the first draft of your story. We are going to revise the stories carefully and work on the layout and illustrations later.

Have fun!

It's a cold morning in Chile (that is in South-America). The sun starts rising. You pack up your stuff and look the last time in your room. Now you're 21 it's your birthday. You don't wanna stay at your parents home longer. Quietly you sneak out of the house. Then you run as fast as you can.

There is a war between the North American people and the South American people. That's why you don't want that someone sees you. You don't look forward, you only run, faster and faster.

You notice that all around you gets quieter and quieter. You are in the jungle.

Suddenly you hear a strange voice crying. It is very spooky.

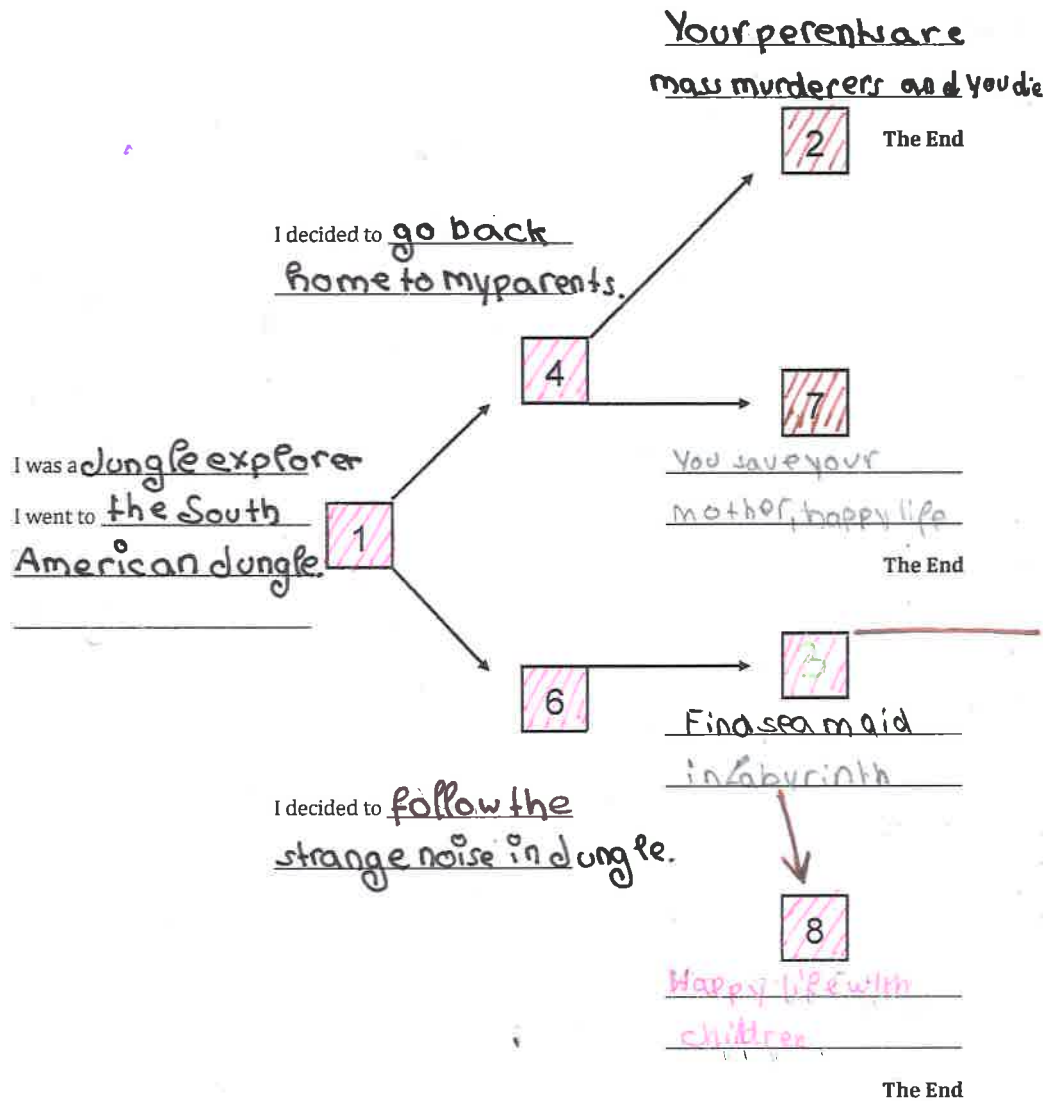

And it doesn't sound like friendly creature.

If you ~, decide to go back home turn to page 4.

If you ~, decide to follow the noise turn to page 6.

Decision tree

[Write story text here]

You don't want to went on, you turn around but it was too late, your parents saw you, running away.

First they thought that you are a gangster, but then they see that it is you, their son. They were not very happy to see you. Because you know their top secret, that they are mass murderers and that they are dealer, so they sell things that are not allowed. And because they saw you running away it is very clear that you will tell some one the secret, actually the police. So they took out there pistols and ... bang, boang! No move! Only quiet. You are dead, killed by your own parents, isn't that strange? yes, but But it is how it is. Sadly this is the end of the story. You are dead.

The end!!!

You go to that door and try to open it lockily it isn't closed. You go inside.

There is a large room with some sort of swimming pool inside.

Oh, what was that? There was a certain moving in the water. You see it and first you think that are some fishes, but in reality, this is a sea maid. A real sea maid! You've never seen one before.

Now she, the sea maid, puts her head out of the water. "She is beautiful, very beautiful." That is the first thing what you are thinking about her. From the first moment you felt in love. The only thing what you want is to marry her. All of a sudden she speaks: "Help me, please help me!" So you go to her and ask her with what you should help. She tells you that she has been in this pool for a very long time, but she isn't a real sea maid. She is only one when she touches water. Otherwise she is an ordinary girl. And that a monster wants to keep her as its wife. Now the monster is sleeping and she wants to go away. But she only can get out of the pool when some men kisses her! You want to stay with her forevery time and you hate this monster. You want to see it killed.

If you decide to try kill the monster turn to page 5!
If you decide to go away quietly without being a big hero turn to page 8!

But probably itsaver to only kiss the sea maid and to go out of the Labyrinth.

And that is exactly what you did. You kissed the sea maid who is called Maybell and she got out of the pool easily. "Wow on land you look even more beautiful!" you wondered. Because bought of you have no idea how to get out of the labyrinth you tried and choosed and after hours you had lockily found the entrance of it.

Together you go through the jungle to the sea-maid's house. There you live happy on farms to your end. You had a few children, whose names are James (12 years) Julian (5 years) and Rebecca (3 years).

The End!

You go ahead. Step by step. All of sudden you hear a scream. This is the voice of your mother. And there it is a jaguar standing before your mother ready to kill her. Quietly you take out your little hand knife. You through (werfen?) your knife (directly) on the big cat. Directly in the heart, the jaguar was dead. Happy you get back to your parents, to their house. All together you eat "brunch" and then you all fall asleep. And then you play a game and so ~~that is~~ a really nice family life. And that's how you live your whole life!

The end!

You wanted to go back home to your parents. Probably it is better and not so dangerous at your parents house. Also when you know their top secret. You went on. The leaves under your feet are rustling. You go faster and faster. Suddenly you hear a hissing. Probably it comes from a big snake. The noise from before gets quieter. But the hissing let you run faster, as fast as you never run before. Far away you can see a little house, it is the house of your parents.

If you ~ decide to go back to the forest turn to page 2.

If you ~ decide to stay at your parents. turn to page 7.

So you jumped into the water, swimming very deep to the ground. There it was, the monster. It has five heads, each of them has three eyes. With out the heads it looks like an giant fish. Slowly and as quiet as you can, you went deeper, you took your little hand knife and you wanted to kill the monster, but suddenly it wakes up. It wants to eat you two up. Not very nice. You swam away into a hole in the wall, but what was that? The tunnel stopped, there only was a wall, a stone wall. Oh no! boughth said, whispering the sea maid, who is named Maybell, said: "Oh, I love you so much...! What is your name? Mine is...!" That were the last two words, Maybe ll said, because the monster had found them, so it ate her first. You still thinking about Maybell and then also you are eaten by the monster. So both of you had died in Love by a monster.

The End!

Also when it doesn't sounds nice you want to know what it is. You go forward in the direction where the sound comes from. All of sudden you hear a cracking under your feet. You are standing on a heap of leaves. What could this be? You give some leaves away and find a very old, wooden floor door. You open it and see a very long stair leading deep down in the earth. Now you are at the entrance of hallway! You go inside of it. On the end of the hallway there is something like a crossing in a labyrinth. There are three different ways. You choose the one in the middle. At the next crossing there are five ways. You do the same as before, you take the middle one. After a little time choosing the way you get confused with the many ways. But you went on. In your way it is getting darker and darker. There, on the end of the way you can see a door.