

Dear Mr. Dahl

I read the book Matilda of you.

It is a really good book. It's funny, fascinating, cool and I really enjoyed to read Matilda. You described the characters very well. I found it very funny that some words are written like you speak it. One of my favourite parts is when Mrs. Trunchbull let a boy eat a whole, big cake. I didn't thought that Mrs. Honey lived in a little hut ^{kind} in the wood. It is a good idea to let a little four-year-old girl can read and write. I found it good that Mrs. Honey becomes ~~to~~ Matilda's mother in the end.

It is a really good book,
