

What was the most interesting part of the story for you?

Which part of the story was the most boring for you! Why?

Are the characters likeable or not? Why not?

How would you change the beginning of the story to make it better?

Can you change the genre? Retell the story as a romantic comedy! Some of the characters fall in love...

Retell the story as a horror story! The main characters are attacked by zombies or werewolves.

How could you improve this story and make it more interesting to a younger audience.

Which teacher does one of the characters most remind you of. Why?

What would happen if the story had a different setting? Jungle? City? Mountain? Desert? Space?

What are the main characters like? Describe their personalities and appearance.

How would you feel if you were the main character? What would you do?

What if the story was set 100 years in the future? How would this change the story?

What if the story was set 500 years ago? How might this change the story?

What character would you most or least like to be like? Why?

Is this story real or fictional? How do you know? If fictional...could it ever happen?

Can you think of a new exciting title for this story?