JULIE 64

u Today is Tuesday

We still don't have internet! So we start with 10 minute free-reading. I read Tom Gates, and I start with page 184...

The enrichment week is finish, and Tom and his class shall have math and all the other ~~tag~~. Tomorrow they are going to the addition with their band, but now he work with his worksheet. WORKSHEET = Arbejdsheet

Tom need chocolate right now and I need chocolate right now. The code to the backup internet is 'adalen2017'

The class read a story in the lesson, so now I read the story. The story is hard, and hard to read it. ~~Said~~ He He said

All the teacher in Tom's school are in good mood because their inspector have gone. They have break, and Tom use to find Norman to remember him about the addition, but when they see him, Norman falls down, and he has pain in his finger, knees and foot.

THE NEXT DAY: Tom has dream about a giant carnival water. Tom are going to wear his new school shoes, but they are ugly, and Tom is not sure about it. Tom says that Derek has a backup pair. PAIR = Par He will borrow, Derek so he slipper for each other. ~~PAIR = Par~~ PAIR = Par SIZE = Størrelse

But Derek's backups are too tiny. When Tom wear the shoes he discover that the shoes are more than too tiny, so he walk slowly. The shoes pain his heels. They are going to have swimming, but Tom forget his goggles.

DISCOVER = opdage GOGGLES = Dykkerbriller

Tom borrow a pair from a friend, but they are big a break now. Before Frank tell us about how important freereading and logbook is. We have no internet, so I work with lots of freereading. It's sad, that we cant work with our project, but we read freereading now, and it is cousi and relaxed.

Tom didn't know that it was June, because if he knew it, he has tolked the banan down from his head.

~~caroon = inguiser~~ They tell him they see TV, and Julie didn't has a TV. Mom come in, and she has buy shoes. It is clown shoes.

Tom and his friends have get some adition after school tomorrow

~~Math = Matematik~~ The bell is ringing and we have a break, and so it is MATH!

I'm not impressed Julie

You are not reading at home

You must read free reading at home

And you must write much more and much more often, if you logbook

☺ Today is Wednesday.

THE SUN IS SHINNING AND THE SKY IS BLUE = HAPPY ME ☺

Today I am going to training gymnastics in Albertslund. I think it will be a hard and serious training because there is only 2 weeks to the next 'konkurrence', and it is DM-kvalifikation. We are going to Jylland with our team, and I am looking forward to it. We shall to Grenaa. We are driving in a bus, and it will be so cosy and nice.

-I was just some information of my life, and now I am going to take something food in my kitchen, mmhmm...

(I LOVE FOOD ☺)

I think, I am going to read free reading.

Tom borrow Solids google, and after the swimming lesson Solid discover that now Tom has google marks in a ring round his eyes. Tom hope it will go. MARKS = Marker
TOWEL = Håndklæde. They are Finnish with the school, and Tom, Derek and Noram are going to the audition soon. But when they came home to Tom, Tom's mum ask him about why he is orange. Tom 'kom til' take his mum's fake tan i stedet for the shampoo to swimming. They will be late, if not drive now. Tom's dad think that they don't have a chance if they will win the audition, because the standard's pretty high. When it be their turn to the audition they discover that it is their old Inspector there is Judge, and now they know that they can't win... Because Tom think that the school inspector hate him. Now the adition is finish, and they all buy a big ice cream. But they dont won the adition. Tom and his friends are okay and all right, but they are of course a bit unhappy. ~~JUDGE~~ = Dommer. Fortunately Tom's mum have get some pair new GOOD shoes, to his school. Tom and his class have math in 2 lessons, but Tom is lucky. He shall help Mrs Mable with some chairs in a hall. ~~FORTUNALY~~ = Heldigvis. When Tom was finish with all the chairs and happy about he missed 2 lessons of math, he come in to their class, and Tom discover that he missed he favorite books ending. Hde the class have hear on a story in the math lesson, and Tom are so sad. ~~NERLY~~ = Næsten. If he will hear the ending, Tom shall self borrow the book on the library and read the ending, and it will be do. It was hard for Tom to borrow the book, because he has some problems with Marcus, his enemis. But it managed, and he could read the ending of the book, and he like write his reading diary. And now I have read the story, it is finished. ~~EARLY~~ = Tidlig.

Today I have read the last 45 pages, and I am so happy about it. The book was good and fun, but I dont know om I will read a Tom Gates book more. maybe Today I have learn 6 new words, and sikler a lot more. Now I will go out side in the good wether, and maybe write some danish.
