

NOTING WHAT I'VE LEARNED

The Top Five Reasons We Love Giving Students Choice in Reading

Draw it!

Write it!

Choice Empowers Students lack of choice leads to refusal making own decisions make students feel powerful

Valuing Student Choices Values The Student individual choices tell a lot about a person teachers can learn about student's personality

Choice Leads to Real and Meaningful Conversations relatable storylines in books lead to a more passionate discussion

Choice Helps Establish and Deepen Relationships talking about books they like offer students the possibility to connect on a personal level

Choice leads to Independence by making their own decisions, Students get more independent

⊕ for teachers:

Choice Changes the Reading Life of the teacher teachers should read as much as possible in order to react to the diverse readers