STORY

Dan and Amy were on an island where recently a house burned down and Irina N. Sparky has sacrificed herself for them. Isabel set the fire, but she pinned it on Alistair. Alistair was caught by the police and killed his circle Bae oh.

Dan and Amy found Irina's notes and figured out that the next clue is in South Africa. But Isabel figured that out too and she wanted to attack them by surprise.

With the help of the song "marching to Perida", Dan and Amy figured out that they had to go to Pretoria. So they changed their route and Isabel couldn't catch them.

At the airport Nellie, Dan & Amy rent a car, but then they noticed that they were followed by the Hols. They had to flee as fast as they could, but after a while their rented car didn't work anymore.

And suddenly Alistair on showed up and wanted to rescue them. But Amy doesn't trust Alistair, so she, Dan and Nellie just drove away.

Alistair gets caught by the Hols and they want to blow him up. But then Dan & Amy rescue Alistair, although Amy wanted him to die. Through a letter, they got at the airport, they find out that they have to go to a museum called CONSTITUTION HILL. There they research and get things that they had to go to a mine so they also noticed that their grandmother (Grace Canill) was one of the four founders of the museum.

In the Witbank mines, Dan & Nellie find a carving in the wall, it was a code that let them to the hideout of the Tomas clan. There they find a bracelet out of diamonds!

→ the clue, in Shaka Zulu's (hero of Africa) grave. But they handle it back to the Tomas clan, in hope that they will do something good for them as well.

But at the airport Isabel Kabra is waiting for them

Dear Diary

I haven't had time to write for a long time, but, now I can, because we are sitting in our rented car, driving away from the Hols, who were following us.

I don't know how they found us, we have only recently found out, that one clue is somewhere in South Africa, maybe in Pretoria, so we went to South Africa, after Alistair. On our uncle was caught by the police, because Isabel Kabra said he killed someone.

Here we wanted to rent a car. And that's what we actually did we rented a quite old, not that good Juggo, but good enough for us.

So we went to the car and next to it there was naturally another pretty expensive car. Its windows were black, and you could hardly see whats inside. By then I already had a mad feeling about this car. And when Dan looked inside, and realized that there are the Hols inside nearly screamed out loud. Luckily Dan was so clever and took their keys, so we could escape.

Our luck didn't last for long though. We have just past a herd of goats, which we have nearly killed (because they were on the road and we were driving full speed), when the car stopped moving. It was broken. It was terrifying and behind us the Hols came. So Nellie screamed "Run!", so we ran. I ran as fast as I could. I don't think I have ever been running that fast. When we reached the woods, I realized that

Dan wasn't with us.

Hysterically I looked around, searching for him.

After a while I saw him in the valley were a few guys were playing football. And he was calmly talking with them, also though he saw the holls coming after us.

It seemed as if he suddenly changed his mind, because he turned around and began to sprint in our direction, as Dan was coming, I naturally wanted to know what he did, but he was like:

We can chat later now hide.

And that's what we did, when we were hiding in the bushes Dan told us that he had told the guy that the holls are mean and evil and that they want to kill us. [And this man believed this and so he and his team don't let the holls move even a bit.

So we were tiptoeing back to our car.

But what a surprise, there Alistair on our prisoned uncle was standing right in front of it. He wanted to join us.

All though he could have rescued our parents. And this is also the reason why

I hate him so we just went in the car ignoring Alistair and drove away. Because luckily, it must have been a wonder, the car worked again.

And here I am know writing in the car.

MURDERERS FIRE

NEWSPAPER

Within two days the police of Krakatoa (an island) found the one, who set a house on the island on fire.

By doing that he killed Irina N. Sparsky, who saved Dan and Amy Cahill's life.

Dan and his sister Amy, and of course their pair Nellie were probably kidnapped by Alistair Oh, the murder of Sparsky.

But without the witnesses Isabel Kabra, and her children Ian and Natalie and her police would still be labra, the police who set the fire, guessing

At least they discovered that the officer,

Bae Oh, is a relative of Alistair Oh.

Bae is his uncle and he looked after him when he was little.

After all Alistair was sent to prison for ten years. And Dan, Amy & Nellie (who didn't want to tell the police anything) went back home

Dan's diary

Dear Diary

A few minutes ago I was hanging upside down in a mine.

Copying and memorizing a text. This was <sup>so</sup> strange. This might sound not so hard, but it is. Really. The text, which was carved into the stone though is very important. It is another hint for the clue in South Africa.

But when I finished copying and Neure pulled me up, naturally Amy and every body wanted to know what I did find out. But this strang, but very hot boy Court was also with us so I tore the paper with my notes in little pieces. It felt awesome to give something up if you have just done. But strictly saying I'm not giving up anything, because I memorized it. Amy noticed this just a moment later, but Court didn't and this is what I wanted. He doesn't know any thing.

WINSTON CHURCHILL...

Birth: 30.10.1874
Death: 24.1.1965

... was a British politician, who was the Prime Minister of the United Kingdom from 1940 to 1945. And then again from 1951 to 1955.

- ... was a very good wartime leader, writer, officer in the British Army, historian, and artist. ... won the Nobel Prize in Literature in 1953. ... had five children
- ... took part in the second Boer war and the first world war.
- ... died at the age of ninety.
- ... was a very important character in the book because his carvings in the mines did help Amy and Dan a lot to find the clue.

But it also says in the book that he meets Shaka, but this can't be true, because Shaka lived before Churchill

Shaka Zulu<sup>(s)</sup>..

3. Who is who? Character Profiles

Computer-room or homework: Go to the Cahill's Web (link on Moodle) and click on BOOKS. Choose your book and find out about the main characters in your book.

Start your "Who is Who? Character Profiles". Keep adding to your profiles as you find out more about the characters in the course of the project.

For your character profiles you will need one page per character. Organize your pages clearly so you can easily find and add information and facts to the characters. Use one full page per person.

Name	Branch
Picture (print or draw)
Facts: (age, profession, achievements...)	Personality: (describe the person in detail, collect lots of fitting adjectives and other little details from the book)

4. The Clue Hunters' Travel Diary and Scrapbook

Slip into the minds of either Dan or Amy and write a diary entry at each place that they have visited. In your diary describe the places you have visited and what happened there. Make sure you include your/their thoughts and feelings, worries, hopes... Diaries are usually full of such reflections. Add fitting materials as if this was a travel scrapbook: Pictures, maps, tickets, personal notes, drawings...

5. Optional:

Read as many books as possible and collect the clues. Play the online game and win... or write short entries for each book into your reading diary to get credit for your reading.
