My unusual pet

I have an unusual pet.
 It is orange and black and it has sharp teeth.
 It is very dangerous.
 It's name is Dr. Caparosa.
 He eats meat when he is hungry.
 Dr. Caparosa lives in a big cage.
 He likes to play with his football.
 He doesn't like my mom because she always wants to cuddle him.

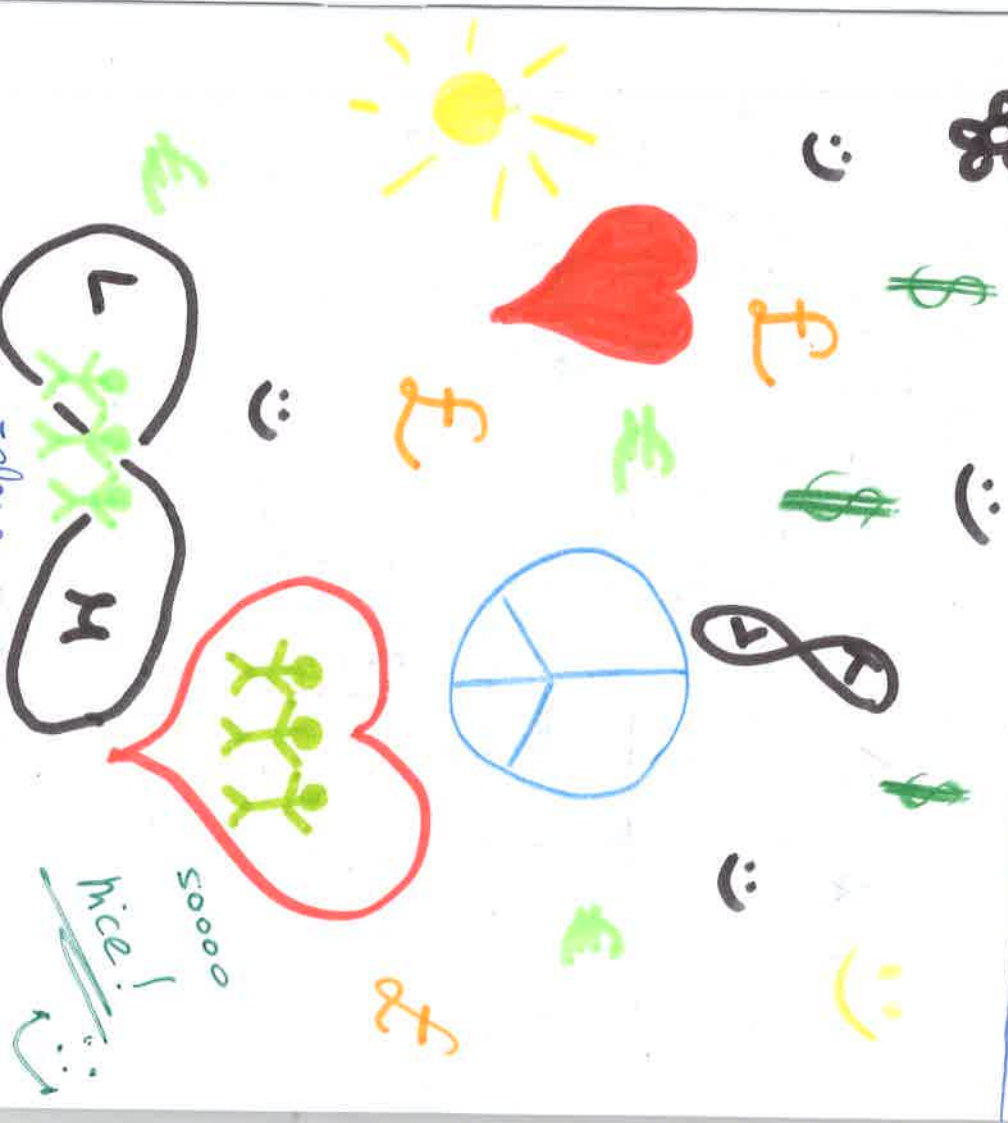

Money, Money, Money....

What money can't buy: love, happiness, peace, friends/ friendships, health, life

A day in the life of ME

5/8/2015

In the morning my father wakes me up.

I don't like getting up in the morning. I hate it.

In my family my mother is an "early bird".

At 6:20am I normally have breakfast.

I'm often in a rush in the morning.

At 6:45am I leave the house and take the train.

Today I finish school at 2:05pm.

When I come home from school I normally eat lunch and then I make my homework.

I'm allowed to play computer games but I don't do it.

At 8:00pm I take a shower and between 9:00pm and 10:00pm I go to sleep.

What a great weekend!

30/4/2015

Last weekend I was in Nolly with my family.

We were in Venezia. We were in a very great hotel, called "Strique Doge". On Friday it was raining but we still had fun because we took a walk and went shopping. In the evenings we played games and we had a lot of fun. On Saturday we went to the island "Lido". There we collected shells and we walked along the beach of Lido. It was sunny and we had nice pictures of the sea. On Sunday we went to "Serrano". We took a private boat and it was very comfortable in the boat because we were alone and the air was out of leather. We were amused in Serrano we went to a museum and we also went to make glass. It was very interesting and I learned a lot about Serrano-glass. We also went to the shops and I bought a necklace, a earring and a ring. In the evening we were driven back home.  WOW! Sounds GREAT!
