What I've got

What I haven't got

I've got many ^{house} clothes in my bedroom shelf. In my house I've got an oven, big room with many toys in it.

I've got fourteen coloured pencils, one pen and two pencils.

In my shelf I've ^{got all} exercise and novel books.

In my classroom I have got a chair to sit down.

Haven't

I haven't got purple hair, because I'm not crazy. Also I haven't got three eyes, because I'm not an alien.

In my classroom we haven't got a flat screen TV, because we must learn and not watch TV. The teachers haven't got a pistol because they don't want to kill anyone.

The city hasn't got nuclear plants, because they haven't got enough money.

A poem about myself.

This is me.

I like to climb on a tree.

I play soccer very good.

I kick the ball with the right foot.

I can run
and that's fun.

I'm not so bad at school.

I like games, they're so cool.

I'm not lazy.

And I'm not crazy.

I like to read and also to eat.

Super, Diner!

That's me again

I never eat meat for breakfast.

I sometimes drink cocoa for breakfast.

I usually eat admission on Sundays but only when I'm eat by my grandma.

I often have meat for ~~breakfast~~ lunch.

I never drink apple juice for dinner.

I sometimes have potatoes for dinner.

I usually drink milk for potatoes.

END

My Christmas Holiday

In the Christmas holidays I usually eat cookies.

What I like best about the holidays is that I can get up when I want.

What I don't like about Christmas is that I must clean my room.

A typical day in the holidays starts like this: I get up ^{and} have breakfast. Then

I read a book or play with my toys until 13:00 o'clock. Now it's lunchtime.

After lunch I play computer or meet friends.

Then I read the second one in my book.

After that, I go to bed.

On the 24th my family and I usually celebrate Christmas.

On the 31st of December my parents and I always fire ^{fire} New Year's rockets.

Normally I go to bed late.

I never dance ~~gamble~~ in the Christmas holidays.

In the holidays I like playing games.

In the holidays I don't like ^{ing} watching the plants.

My favorite part of the holidays is opening the presents.

My animal Pet

I have an animal pet. It is very small and it can fly. It is very dangerous.

I keep it in a glass box with plants in it. His name is Mr. Bile. He usually lives in the rainforest and fly around.

I feed it once a day with blood. After

I feed it it is hot and before I feed it it's fun. Humans are afraid of it.

Money - Money - Money ...

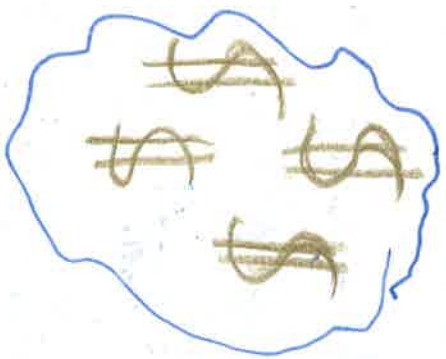

What money can buy: food, house, clothes, cars, toys, pets, trips ...

What money can't buy: love, happiness, peace, friends, health, life

What a "great" weekend!

Last weekend I was in Croatia. My family and I decided to take the ferry to an island. We spend a wonderful day on the island. There was a beautiful beach and a nice restaurant. We had to run to catch the ferry back, but we made it! On the ferry my friend and I ordered the different meals. We noticed that the sky became darker. Five minutes later it got very windy. We ran to the front of the boat to enjoy the "breeze"! Soon after it started to rain and we realized the storm front coming closer! Then the sea became wild and the waves became bigger! We saw many small sailing boats, that were trying to get out of the heavy storm. But they were shaken by the "monster waves" and some almost collided. ~~At~~ The passengers on the ferry got really scared. ~~GO~~ ^{HELP!} Even our parents were very worried. My friend's mother is Croatian and asked one of the boatmen: "This probably is a normal thing for you, right?" The man looked at her in horror and answered: "This is my first week on the ferry; I've never seen anything like it!"

Now we were more scared than ever! The ferry was not allowed to get into the harbour and we had to wait in the open sea for fourteen minutes until the storm was over. When we finally got into the harbour, we were trying to get off the boat and we all had hot chocolate to calm our nerves. When we walked back home we saw the luggers and most beautiful rainbows ever!

we were you

scared at all,
