

THE OLD MAN and the magic coin

by Mirjam Moser

Amy liked old people but she didn't like the old man in her street. The old man looked grumpy and scary. Amy was ten years old. She didn't have parents but she had her grandfather Tom. Her birthday was in two days and she was very happy. Tom knew that she was afraid of the old man. His name was Donald. Finally was her birthday. She woke up and went into the kitchen. There was a big birthday cake and a tiny present. The present was a small coin with a tiger on it. She said: "Thank you! That is a nice coin!"

Wow!
This is a really great storybook, Mirjam!!!

On the way she met the old man again. She had the coin in her hand and said to the man: "Hello, how are you? I'm fine. I'm on the way to school. Would you like to go with me?" "I'm fine. Yes, that is very kind of you! When they were at the school she asked: "Would you like to go with me every day?" "Yes! You are a very nice girl."

the next day she went to school with the coin in her pocket.

On the next day Amy went to school. She had the coin in her pocket. She went along the street to the school. At one o'clock school was finished and she went home. On the way she met the old man and she ran away. Amy told her grandfather about the old man and he said: "You have the coin, use it!" She went to bed and on

From this moment on, Amy was never afraid of the old man.

One day a boy went to his friends on the playground, but the way to it was very dangerous. In this street nobody lived, it was deserted. In one big house in the middle of the street, there lived an old family but everyone had died. The family had a daughter. She was called Hanna. She had always braids and a white dress.

The magic Coin

On the way to the playground the boy called Max, saw his friends. His friends were not very nice to him because they said: "You can only play with us if you go into the house and take something with you, but you need to go to the attic!"

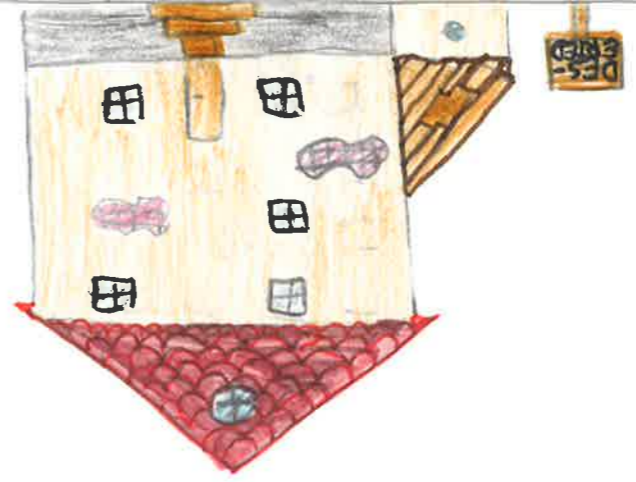

On the way to the playground the girl said to him: "I am not dead I live, my family died because there was a fire in the house that's why it looks like from that day on."

"I am so sorry for you" said the boy.

From that day on they were good friends and the girl lived in Max' house.

That's a really good story, foli't!

by Edi Kofrc

Max was afraid but he did it. He opened the door and went in. Everywhere were spiderwebs and in the middle were big stairs that went to the second floor. Max went on and went on. When he was in the attic he looked around him and heard around him and so scared that he wanted to scream!

Max was afraid but he did it. He opened the door and went in. Everywhere were spiderwebs and in the middle were big stairs that went to the second floor. Max went on and went on. When he was in the attic he looked around him and heard around him and so scared that he wanted to scream!

When he was outside the coin glowed and made him strong.

His friends afraid and ran away from him. Max heard strange sounds and looked behind him. There was the girl but Max was not afraid of the girl.

Then he saw a picture and wanted to take it

He looked out of the window and saw his friends laughing about him.

but then he stumbled over a coin.

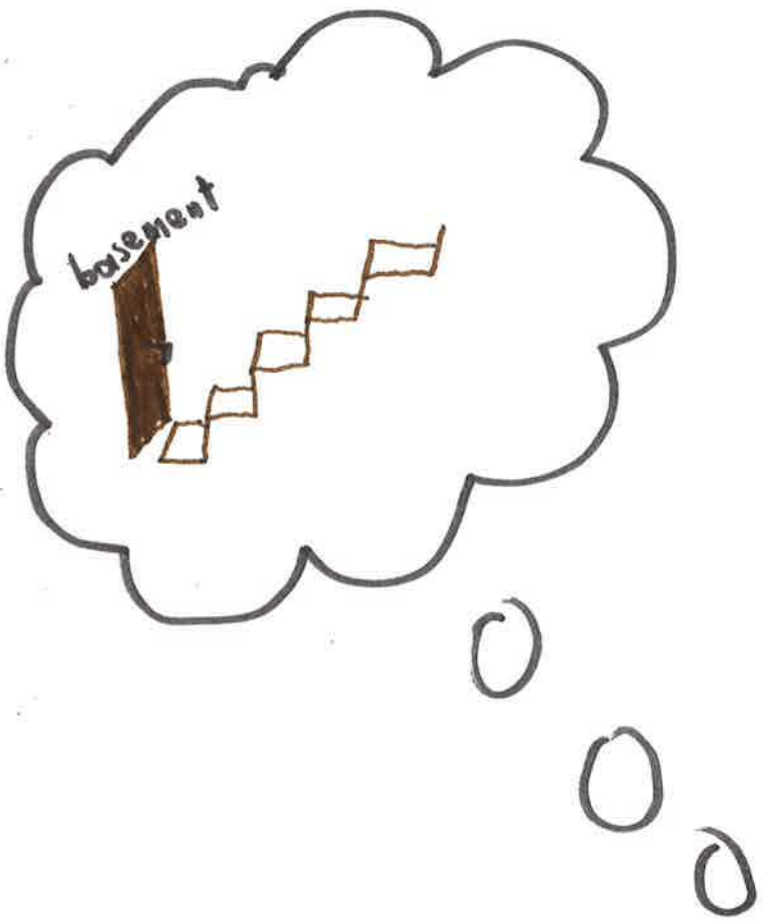

He took it and ran out of his house!

They built a tree house on a very tall tree and had a lot of fun. When the tree house was finished and Tom and Max went home, Tom saw a big snake. He was very afraid of this snake and he ran to Max's house. Max didn't see the snake and didn't know why Max was running away. So he also ran to his house.

When they were in Max's bedroom, Max asked Tom why he had run away and Tom said: "I saw a big snake behind the tree. I am very afraid of snakes. Five years ago I was afraid of dogs but a shopkeeper gave me a coin and I wasn't afraid of dogs anymore." Max had an idea and they went to the basement.

Now I will tell you a story about Tom. Tom was a very nice boy and loved all animals, but he hated snakes and was very afraid of them. One day, when he was by his friend Max, they played in the garden and in the evening they went to the forest behind Max's house.

By Jonathan

The magic COINS

Max opened a little box. In this box there were many different coins with animals on them. Max gave Tom a coin and Tom made it. Max said: "You can have this coin. The shopkeeper is my grandfather. He has made all these coins. But nobody knows why they are magic." Tom was very thankful and wasn't afraid of snakes anymore. Max and Tom were best friends forever.

What a great story!!!!