Dear Ella,

Your the best friend ever. I love you so much. your my unbiological sister. We listen to the same music like like the same colors. You understand me like nobody else. Even if your parents are a little bit crazy, like all the other people in Deadwood, you are my Best friend forever. I love the way you sing. I love the way you laugh. I love the way you're screaming.

And for what Gotta Santini did to you, I could could kill her. She is the worst person in the whole world. I hate her. She is the opposite of you. She's arrogant, she's annoying, she is horrible, she's ugly, selfish, stupid, egoistic, jealous, condescending, arrogant, self-centered and impurely. Gotta Santini is so mean.

You're so beautiful, funny, special, unique, humble charming, ambitious, fair, friendly, helpful, intelligent, creative, clever, nice and so trustworthy.

You are the best person in the whole world. I had so much fun with you in the short time I've known you. Since I've known you I would the best time in my life. I would like to thank you for all the inside-time. Even if I love how you'd would stay in Deadwood, because of you. You're my best friend forever.

lots of love, your sister

Diary of Ella

Dear Diary,

Today in school there was a new girl her name is Lola. That's such a nice name. As she walked into the classroom self-confidently our teacher introduced her to the whole class. Immediately Gotta Santini and her friends rolled their eyes.

Six months ago was sitting next to me. I asked her how it was to live in New York. She quickly gave me an answer. She said: Oh, New York is the best city in the whole universe. You can go every where you want with the Underground. And the Bodega are so relaxed. They don't care about anything. So the opposite of this little town.

Lola was constantly talking about New York. I like New York to talk. I could listen to her forever. She talked about New York and her family, I was just listening. After school I showed her the park we layed down in the grass.

5 minutes later Gotta was coming with her idiotic friends. Gotta said: "Hello, your boss's wheels up?" Lola was rolling her eyes. She said: "Could you please go away, we want our privacy!" Gotta rolled her eyes, took my bag and turned her around. Everything fell out of my bag. Gotta and her friends looked away. I was so angry. Lola said: "She will get it back!" Lola is so cool. I think we gonna be best-friends.

Letter to the Author

Today was my first school day in the new school. Davidwood is so boring, I would like to move back to New York to my home. New York is the best city in the whole world. The people are just so chilled out. Nobody cares about your hair or your way to dress.

New York

So as I arrived at school, at 8:02. which is 2 minutes late, Mrs. Kelly told me that this was not acceptable. She said: "This should not happen again, or you will be going directly to the principal!" I said: "This one only 2 little minutes, I'm sorry!" My answer made her even more angry.

New York

I sat down next to Ruthie Baker. He was the only one without a neighborhood. He was so disgusting. Another was nose-picking all the time. Then he ate his boogys. While he ate them he was sneezing. It was really hard for me to sit next to him.

New York

A girl named Ella smiled at me. She was very class. She asked the teacher if she could sit next to me. The teacher said yes. I was so happy to see her. She is a friend of Sister's. A girl named Colleen Santos and her "friends", all wearing Brown or Green, looked their eyes at me and Ella. Hopefully Ella and me get good friends.

New York

Dear Dyan Shelton,

I had a lot of fun reading your book it is fabulous. You describe all the characters so well. I think it was a good idea to write about your own teenage life and not about your dreamland. It was so well written that I know that must have happened to the author herself! and I was right. I am sure I will read several more books you've written. My favorite characters are the twins. They are so sweet. Colleen Santos must have been a horrible girl. In the book she is described so well. I think Sofia is a very strong girl she is so self-confident. I am not surprised that your book is made into a movie. I am gonna watch it. I don't like the beginning of your book. I read a beginning like this 100 of times. It would be better to describe her feelings about Davidwood and why she moved and what is better in New York than in Davidwood. That would be more interesting. Ella is so much different than Ella. I think it would be better to write for as she is, not someone new to do. Hope she did it well. Cause that is what best friends should do. I liked your book very much and I hope you write several more books.

Best regards,

Olga Kuyper-Schmitt

Dear David,

It is going in New York? I would like to come back to New York. I miss walking through the Central Park with you. I miss going to our favorite restaurant. I miss eating pancakes with you in the morning. I miss you and my favorite city.

Deadwood is so boring. All the people are so strict about clothing! Hairstyle! Family! Friends... I found a new friend! Ella is gorgeous! She understands me and she is so reliable. You would like her very much. She has kind of strange parents. We had so much fun, but in New York it would be more fun.

There is a girl named Carter. She is in our school. She is so beautiful. I hate her. She was calling Ella before I came to Deadwood, because she was jealous. You would not like her.

Mom, Paula & Ben are good! Mom in Deadwood. Mom's pottery is going great good. I think she also misses New York sometimes. Paula & Ben are having a lot of fun here in Deadwood. How is your best going? How is Paul? I would like to come to New York in the holidays. Would it be ok for you? I would like to see Julia too. I'm playing in a theatre in school, wish me good luck.

lots of love,

Sida
